Snow Slide Kills Six At Twin Lakes, Colo.

By STEPHEN M. AUG
TWIN LAKES, Colo. (AP) — A giant mass of snow slid down Colorado's highest mountain Sunday, sweeping over four houses, and snuffing out at least six lives. Officials estimated more than 200,000 tons of snow plunged down the southern slope of 14,341-foot Mount Elbert in a 3 1/2-mile run. It engulfed the western end of Twin Lakes, a central Rocky Mountain village 140 miles south-

PUNTA DEL ESTE, Uruguay (AP) — Western Hemisphere foreign ministers ceremoniously opened their conference on Cuban communism today and then shifted into informal private sessions to discuss family disputes imperiling inter-American unity.

House Ready For Vote on Postal Rates

WASHINGTON (AP) — Major action is scheduled this week on the floor and in committees of both the Senate and the House. A postal rate bill comes before the House Tuesday with a final vote likely Wednesday. It would add a penny to the cost of mailing a letter.

Final voting is scheduled to start Tuesday in the Senate on a House-passed measure known as the Du Pont tax bill. The bill would allow stockholders of the big Delaware corporation who receive General Motors stock owned by Du Pont to pay taxes on it at a special rate instead of the higher regular income rate. Du Pont has been ordered by the courts to divest itself of about $3 billion worth of General Motors stock.

The postal rate increase measure technically has been on the House docket since last summer. It would add about $550 million to postal revenues. An administration-backed amendment likely to be approved would raise the extra income to $621 million.

Most of the extra revenue would come from a one-cent hike in first class and air mail rates, with lesser amounts from higher rates for second and third class newspapers, magazines and bulk mail.

The House Ways and Means Committee has started the final round of work on the President's bill to tighten up some taxes and to give business a billion dollar incentive to modernize. The measure is expected to be ready for a House vote next month.

Italy Protests Spy Flight of Bulgarian Plane

BARI, Italy (AP)—Italy strongly protested to Bulgaria the flight of a Communist supersonic jet carrying high-powered cameras over a secret Allied missile base near Bari, and Italian newspapers today raised the cry: "a new U2?"

The young Bulgarian air force pilot, dragged in tears from his wrecked plane, asked not to be turned over to Bulgarian consular officials, implying he was making a break for freedom. Counter-intelligence agents were skeptical of his story and studied exposed film found in the Soviet-built MIG19. Officials pointed out that if he was defecting, he passed up several chances to land at Italian air fields before his plane crashed.

The armed fighter made two low-level passes over the missile base at Gioia del Colle—a new, closely guarded NATO installation—before slamming to the ground in a field Saturday only 2,000 yards from the base. The Bulgarian consulate in a statement said the pilot, 2nd Lt. Milusko Solakov, 22, lost his way on a training flight in fog. It demanded the return of Solakov and the plane. The crash was 400 miles from his base in central Bulgaria.

Premier Amintore Fanfani conferred at length with Foreign Minister Antonio Segni Sunday and then sent a protest to the Bulgarian minister in Rome, Constantine Micev, charging violation of Italian air space.

The young pilot, who suffered only a fractured left arm and scalp, was held under heavy guard in a hospital at Acquafredda, a small town 16 miles south of Bari.

Italian newspapers compared Solakov to American spy pilot Francis Gary Powers whose U2 plane was downed over the Soviet Union in May 1960. That brought an international uproar which Premier Khrushchev used to wreck the Paris summit conference later.

Powers was sentenced to 10 years' imprisonment on spy charges by a Soviet court, and one Rome newspaper urged today that the Italian government be just as severe with Solakov.

No Comfort for U.S., Rusk Says Of Russ-Cino Row

NEW YORK (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today the United States should not suppose that the struggle between Moscow and Peking offers "any comfort to us at the present time."

"This argument really is about how best to get on with the world revolution of communism as they see it," he said. "They're committed to that in Moscow, they're committed to that in Peking. Their argument is about the differences in procedures by which they would accomplish these purposes," he said.

The retired Ely, Minn., miner, 67, stepped from an airliner here Sunday. He walked into a conference, clutched his abdomen and collapsed. His wife, Mary, 62, bent over him and fell dead at his side. A few moments later Romshek was pronounced dead.

The couple left Ely last November and drove to Florida with friends. Romshek had a heart attack Dec. 3. Last week a Florida doctor finally gave Romshek permission to go home.

The two flew here, where Mrs. Romshek's brother, George Banovetz, was to meet them with a car and drive them to Ely. "I don't think either of them could have lasted without the other," said another brother, Matt Banovetz. Romshek retired six years ago because of his heart. Mrs. Romshek had diabetes and a heart ailment.

Knutson to Be Chief Justice

ST. PAUL, Minn.—Oscar R. Knutson, an associate justice of the Minnesota Supreme Court since 1948, will be sworn in Friday as chief justice.

Gov. Elmer L. Andersen announced the appointment Sunday. Knutson will succeed Chief Justice Roger L. Dell, who announced his retirement last Friday.

In accepting the appointment Knutson said he greatly appreciated the governor's confidence and will do the best he can to follow Dell — "one of the finest chief justices we've ever had."

"I hope I continue to have the cooperation of the judges of the district courts and the Supreme Court," Knutson added. "We have a fine group of colleagues to work with. We will do the best we can to keep the court calendars up to date."

Knutson is a native of Superior, Wis. He moved with his family to a Marshall County farm near Warren, Minn., in 1916. He attended St. Olaf College at Northfield, Minn., and was graduated from the University of Minnesota law school in 1927.

Knutson practiced law in Warren, in northwestern Minnesota, from 1927 until 1941. He was appointed judge of the 14th Judicial District Jan. 2, 1941, and was elected to the bench in 1942.

Knutson accepted appointment as associate justice of the Supreme Court May 7, 1948. He was elected in 1948 and re-elected in 1954 and 1960.

Mrs. Knutson, the former Louise Halvorson, died in January 1955. Gov. Andersen said he will announce later this week his appointment of a successor to Knutson as associate justice. District Judge Walter F. Rogosheske, Sauk Rapids, is considered to have the "inside track" for the post. Rogosheske is a former member of the state Legislature.

Lawrence M. Hall of St. Cloud, chairman of the Metropolitan Airports Commission, also is reportedly under consideration as Knutson's successor. One possibility is that Andersen will name Judge Rogosheske to succeed Knutson and then appoint Hall to succeed Rogosheske on the district bench.

One witness said he saw smoke coming up from the scene of the blast.

The blast occurred under an archway in the back of the complex of buildings making up the Foreign Ministry. Police reported one person killed.

Several persons were reported wounded.

One source said that the explosion seemed to have come from a body-trapped automobile. The car was destroyed and four others were set afire.

Kennedy Reports Progress Toward Full Employment

By STERLING F. GREEN
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy reported today the nation met its recovery aims in 1961, is making "another giant stride" toward full employment this year, and can attain a "staggering" $600-billion worth of production in 1963.

The time to erect a defense-in-depth against future recessions is this prospering moment, Kennedy told Congress in his economic report. It was the third and last of the major White House messages to the new session.

The antislump weapons needed, he said, are his twin plans — sourly greeted by most Republican Congress members — for standby presidential powers to cut taxes temporarily and unleash federal money for quick-acting public works.

Kennedy urged Congress to let him trigger up to $2 billion of lending, spending and matching funds into the works plan when joblessness reaches danger points which he defined.

He also spelled out for the first time how much tax-cutting leeway he wants — enough, he said, to throw $5 billion of new buying power into a faltering economy in six months, or, if extended with Congress' assent, $10 billion in a year.

The cuts he proposed would be up to 5 percentage points in each income tax rate bracket bracket. That would mean a one-fourth tax reduction for the lowest taxpayer group, but considerably less, in proportion, for the higher-income families.

Further, Kennedy said, this Congress should:

Empower him to "negotiate a reduction in the deficit of the European Common Market" with a gradual lowering of U.S. duties. Lengthen jobs benefits permanently and enroll three million new workers under unemployment insurance.

Enact promptly the pending 8 per cent investment credit for industry.

He also called for repeal of the Silver Purchase Act, aid to education at all levels, health care for the aged under Social Security, job training for idle youths and job retraining for out-of-work adults.

The President pledged that this recovery will not be nipped off prematurely — as he said that of 1959 was — by a tight-money policy.

The outlook for stable living costs is favorable, he assured Congress, if unions and industry will show statesmanlike restraint.

As the year advanced, the after-tax incomes of American consumers rose $92 a person, or $21 billion, he reported.

For the first time since the Truman administration, the annual economic message specified goals which, in the President's opinion, would accomplish the intent of the Employment Act of 1946. That law committed the government to policies which would maintain "maximum employment, production and purchasing power."

The same law created the President's Council of Economic Advisers, the body which provided the research and leadership for today's 300-page message.

Any doubts that Kennedy means business about his antirecession program were dispelled by the serious and urgent tone of the message. On the tax-cutting, the pump priming and jobless pay proposals he said: "They will constitute the greatest step forward."

Lightning Hits Plane

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A crowded twin-engine airliner, carrying comedian Bob Hope, actress Jane Wyman and several dozen others, was struck by lightning Sunday over Northern California, Hope said today.

The lightning hit the nose of the plane. The pilot told us: "A strange thing just happened. Ladies and gentlemen, we've been hit by lightning and we're still flying."

"I turned to Jane Wyman and said: 'Is there an insurance machine on this plane?'" Hope said the plane was operated by Pacific Air Lines. He said about 40 persons were aboard.

Hope, who had been at the Crosby golf tournament at Pebble Beach, south of San Francisco, flew home later on another plane. Miss Wyman, accompanied by her husband, Fred Karger, also took another plane home.

Space Flight Reset For Early Saturday

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — United States' plans to send astronaut John H. Glenn Jr., three times around the earth were postponed a second time today, probably until next Saturday.

Reliable sources reported additional days were needed to completely check out faulty oxygen system in the environmental control system. This system, which feeds oxygen to the astronaut's pressurized space suit, developed problems during a checkout early today.

The discovery of the trouble prompted officials to call an immediate 24-hour delay of the shot, pushing it off from Wednesday until Thursday. Later, the sources reported, it was decided to make a complete check to insure all is right for Glenn's safety.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration has not announced a definite date for the firing, and therefore declined comment on the report.

The trouble developed in a hard-to-get-at spot in the capsule and the entire control panel had to be removed so technicians could correct it.

This is the fourth postponement of the launching. It originally was set for Dec. 20 when officials felt there was a chance to achieve manned orbit flight in 1961. When this was deemed impossible, the

French Foreign Affairs Ministry Rocked by Blast

PARIS (AP) — An explosion rocked the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs today. Police were investigating the possibility that the blast was from a bomb planted by the right-wing Algerian Secret Army Organization.

Persons in the assembly reported the explosion. It was also heard in the U.S. Embassy, across the Seine River, just off the Place de la Concorde.

One witness said he saw smoke coming up from the scene of the blast.

The blast occurred under an archway in the back of the complex of buildings making up the Foreign Ministry. Police reported one person killed.

Several persons were reported wounded.

One source said that the explosion seemed to have come from a body-trapped automobile. The car was destroyed and four others were set afire.

The blast was heard throughout the central part of the city. Hundreds of panes of glass were blown out of windows in the ministry. Glass was also shattered in offices in the nearby National Assembly.

THE WORLD TODAY

Giant Retaliation Could Be 'Final'

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Massive retaliation comes to look more and more like final retaliation while this overheated world torments itself with small, or guerrilla, wars in the hope it can keep them small.

The latest to put his finger on guerrilla fighting as the thing to look for is the Pentagon's No. 2 man, Roswell L. Gilpatric, deputy secretary of defense.

In a TV interview Sunday he said "Communist doctrine is conflict." He foresees a step-up in indirect warfare and guerrilla battles and mentioned the guerrilla fighting in Viet Nam as an example.

The United States had a monopoly on atomic weapons only four years: from 1945 until 1949 when the Russians achieved their first atomic explosion. They developed their hydrogen bomb in 1953.

Now that both have the power to wipe each other out, neither wants to begin what neither could win. This massive retaliation, being a last gasp effort, would be a final retaliation.

In a sense, then, they have paralyzed themselves in the act of achieving their maximum power. It is useful to them therefore only in discouraging each other from any attempt at an all-out sudden victory.

But the Communists were never discouraged, even while this country had that four-year atomic monopoly, from attempting to accumulate a series of small victories which, if permitted, would in time become total victory.

In the 1945-49 period communism under Stalin tried its luck in Iran, Greece and Turkey but gave up under the pressure of President Truman's unpredictable toughness.

In 1948 it did take over Czechoslovakia. This was done too suddenly for Truman to stop it. Then Stalin tried the Berlin blockade, an episode which gave some insight into the unwillingness of both sides to blow the lid off.

The West, outnumbered by Soviet ground forces, didn't try to smash through to the city by land. Truman tried the airlift. This gave Stalin a chance to back away from the big war.

There would have been one if he tried to shoot down the planes. He didn't and backed off. Then he tried his luck in Korea. This time Truman stopped it with direct action. But he wasn't fighting the Red army there.

When the Red Chinese got in and rolled back the U.N. troops, Truman backed off from the big explosion. He might have smashed them with bombings. He didn't. If he had tried it, and Russia

Knowles Raps Tax Plan as 'Monstrosity'

MILWAUKEE (AP)—U. S. Gov. Warren Knowles, who seeks Republican endorsement for governor, has described Democratic Gov. Gaylord Nelson's compromise tax plan as "a monstrosity."

Knowles said the revenue law is "unfair" and "unrealistic" in creating a fair tax structure. The law, Knowles said Sunday, would be a major issue in the campaign.

The lieutenant governor, participating in a Milwaukee television interview, The Open Question—WTMJ-TV also said that he believes Nelson will sign the controversial bill providing school bus transportation for parochial and private school pupils.

Knowles said if he were governor, he would determine if there was sufficient need for the transportation at this time before signing the bill.

He also said he would first "find out if the state can afford it since estimates of its cost run from $400 to $4 million a year."

Knowles said it is his hope that the Legislature can still be called to deal with the problem. "As a constitutional officer," he said, "I favor following the Constitution which calls for reapportionment after every 10-year census."

In answering whether he favored area or strictly population reapportionment, Knowles said "it has to be based on population at the present time because that is the law."

Knowles also was questioned about Americanism in the campaign, and answered that it "is going to be an issue" because "those running for public office should stand the light of publicity."

Knowles called a press conference in Madison Saturday to state his views on the request by Republican State chairman Claude Janner that the party make its 1962 campaign a crusade for Americanism.

NASON ON EDUCATION

New Semester Takes Planning

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed.D.
Professor of Education,
University of Southern California

All too often a student starts out a new semester by getting lost in a new subject—history, geography, life science, algebra or perhaps a foreign language.

He stares hopelessly at the pages of the textbook. All he sees is a mass of unrelated details. Nothing "rings a bell." He finds it difficult to follow what is being said in class. It doesn't seem interesting to him.

With a bad start, he gets frustrated. Even a crash session fails to bring order out of chaos.

He makes a bad grade on the six weeks test. He is on his way to failure.

What would have prevented this? A plan.

You should start each course with a definite study plan. Plans will vary with the subjects, but all should include this preparation for learning, made BEFORE the class meets for the first time:

1. Make an outline of the first chapter in the textbook, whether it is world history, economics, biology, chemistry or whatever. This outline will give you background and make listening easier and more enjoyable in the first class periods. It will allow the learning process to start immediately.

2. Train your ears to hear the new words. Find out what each new word means. Understand it so thoroughly that it brings up a mental picture every time you read it or hear it.

Find a place where you can repeat the new words over and over until your ears are trained to hear them and your mind to bring up the pictures.

You will then be ready to start listening efficiently the very first day of the class.

3. Work out a plan for organizing the course which also will serve as a memory scheme.

Sketch maps or draw time lines for a history course. Draw cell structures, the circulatory system, the digestive tract in life science. It doesn't matter if the drawings are good or not, they are for your personal use.

Continually revise a one-page outline of the course.

4. Make a firm resolution to keep up-to-date right from the start.

Solve every problem that you try, even though finding the solution may involve getting help from another student or the teacher.

Swedes Imprisoned in Katanga Returned

STOCKHOLM (AP)—The Swedish soldiers captured during the United Nations-Katanga fighting in the Congo came home Sunday night after 44 days of prison in Katanga.

Wives, parents, parents and children gave them a welcome warm with kisses and wet with tears at Stockholm's Bromma Airport.

Jap Crown Prince To Visit Philippines

TOKYO (AP)—Crown Prince Akihito and his wife, Crown Princess Michiko, left by plane today for an official three-week visit to Pakistan, Indonesia and the Philippines. The 28-year-old heir to the Japanese throne is making the trip as representative of his father, Emperor Hirohito. He said he and his wife hoped their tour would "further improve friendly relations between Japan" and the three other nations.

Science Shrinks Piles
New Way Without Surgery
Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

Preparation H®—The Only Hemorrhoidal Remedy In World
That Contains New Healing Substance.

Every Claim Verified By Doctors and Proved By 4 Leading Clinics.

For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop burning rectal itch and relieve pain — without surgery or painful injections.

In one hemorrhoid case after another prompt relief was reported — also a "striking improvement" in from 2 to 4 days. These reports were verified by a doctor's observations and proved by four leading clinics.

Pain and itching were promptly relieved. And while gently relieving this distress — actual reduction (shrinking) of hemorrhoids took place. Most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astounding statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this was accomplished at home without surgery, injections, narcotics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world famous research institute. This new healing substance is offered in ointment or convenient suppository form called Preparation H. And Preparation H is the only hemorrhoidal remedy in the world containing this truly magical healing substance.

Magic Healing Power
Discovered By Accident

Like many great discoveries—the effectiveness of Preparation H was also discovered quite by accident. In the laboratories of a famous research institution in Cincinnati, Ohio—renowned scientists were conducting advanced medical tests.

During an ether-extracting procedure, there was a sudden explosion. An assistant was severely burned. As an emergency measure, large quantities of an ointment (still in an experimental stage) were smeared on. To everyone's amazement, pain ceased immediately and the skin healed remarkably fast without scarring.

Later tests revealed this ointment was full of a new substance which has the astonishing power to heal injured skin. This substance was then scientifically combined with other effective medical ingredients into a product called Preparation H. And here's why this remarkable hemorrhoid remedy is so successful — Preparation H promptly relieves pain and burning rectal itch. Shrinks hemorrhoids without surgery. Heals injured tissue back to normal and helps prevent infection of hemorrhoids.

Every claim made for Preparation H has been verified by doctors. This is the only hemorrhoidal remedy containing Bio-Dyne. Just ask for Preparation H at any drug counter in ointment or suppository form.

High School Debaters Win In Tournament

The Winona Senior High School debate team, runnerup in several previous tournaments, won its first major title of the current season when it emerged as the winner of the seventh annual Mohawk Invitational Speech Meet debate rounds at Mason City, Iowa, Friday and Saturday.

In four rounds of debate in competition with 21 teams from high schools in a three-state area, the Winona Team posted a 7-1 record.

MEMBERS OF the tournament title team coached by Robert Neuhoff were Kent Gage and Gary Blumentritt, affirmative, and Jack Nelson and Tony Schima, negative. Each team participated in four rounds of debate.

Winona's negative team went undefeated in the tournament.

The event was sponsored by the Quintilian Club of Mason City High School. Schima and Blumentritt also competed in the extemporaneous speaking division.

Last weekend's question for debate was, "Resolved: That the federal government should equalize educational opportunities by means of grants to the states for public elementary and secondary schools."

THIS IS THE question to be debated at the National Forensics League tournament next month.

Tuesday night Winona Senior High will be host to area debate teams in a beginners practice meet at the high school.

Saturday the Winona team will compete in the Alexander Ramsey High School Invitational Tournament in St. Paul.

Permit Denied For TV Station At Eau Claire

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission said today it has dismissed an application of Chippewa Cable Co. for authority to operate a television station at Eau Claire, Wis.

The action was taken at Chippewa's request, an FCC spokesman said.

The firm had applied for Channel 25.

FCC said officials of the company reported they could not comply with an FCC requirement that they provide $100,421 in cash for construction, equipment, and other financial needs.

Commanders Picked for New Divisions

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army announced today it will bring the first of its two new regular divisions into existence early next month and the second one in March.

This is earlier than originally hoped for, a spokesman said.

It means the 1st Armored Division will join the present 14 regular divisions followed soon by the 5th Infantry.

Commanders of the two divisions also were announced.

Brig. Gen. Ralph H. Haines, Jr., now assistant division commander of the 2nd Armored Division, will command the 1st Armored, at Ft. Hood, Tex.

Selected for command of the 5th Infantry is Brig. Gen. Ashton H. Mannhart, presently chief of the Training Center at Ft. Carson, Colo. The 5th Division will be based at Ft. Carson.

Both have been nominated by President Kennedy for promotion to major general rank.

Plainview Youth Confined to Jail

WABASHA, Minn. (Special) — A 22-year-old Plainview man who left a local tavern Friday night before police arrived to arrest him for disorderly conduct gave himself up about 45 minutes later at the Wabasha County jail and is being held there without charge so far, according to County Attorney Martin J. Healy.

The sheriff's office said Robert Hassig is on parole from the state Youth Conservation Commission for an auto theft at Rochester in 1959, for which he served time at the St. Cloud Reformatory. The sheriff's office said Hassig also was placed on probation in Wabasha County District Court for auto theft in 1958.

Authorities said Hassig kicked William Steinhess, a bartender in the Plainview liquor store, broke glasses in the store and threatened another bartender, Leo Deming.

Police were called at 10 p.m. Hassig left. Sheriff John Jacobs

Below Zero Weather To Continue This Week

Temperatures somewhat below normal, but not as far below as last week, are forecast for Winona and vicinity for the next five days.

It will be partly cloudy and continued cold tonight and Tuesday, according to the official forecast, with a low of 5 below tonight and a high of 8-10 Tuesday.

NEARLY HALF an inch of snow fell over the weekend, raising temperatures from the -18 of Saturday morning to 8 above Sunday morning. Sunday afternoon the thermometer rose to 11 and last night dropped to -3. At noon today the reading was 00.

Scattered snow flurries and continued rather cold is the outlook for Wednesday. The extended forecast for the area indicates temperatures will average almost 10 degrees below normal with some moderation Tuesday and Wednesday but colder Thursday and Friday. Precipitation will average less than one-tenth of an inch as occasional light snow or flurries.

SOME BELOW zero readings were reported across the state this morning with International Falls having -10 and Bemidji -9. It was -7 at Alexandria and -3 at St. Cloud. Rochester posted a

-8 this morning after a high of 6 Sunday and La Crosse had figures of -5 and 12 for the same times.

A year ago today Winona had a high of 9 and a low of -13 with a trace of snow. Alltime high for Jan. 22 was 50 in 1942 and the low for the day was -28 in 1936. Mean for the past 24 hours was 4 as contrasted with a normal mean of 16. For the first time this winter the normal mean started to rise. The mean Sunday was 15. The mean rises a degree every few days until it reaches 75 on July 18.

Less than a quarter of an inch of snow fell in most areas of Wisconsin during the weekend as the state escaped the latest blast of winter.

Temperatures, however, fell to subzero levels in many places again this morning, hitting a low of 14 below zero at Eau Claire. Wausau had 7 below, Superior 2 below and La Crosse 5 below and Green Bay, Lone Rock and Park Falls zero. It was 1 above at Madison, 5 above at Milwaukee and 7 at Racine.

THE STATE enjoyed the warmest weather in several days as the mercury moved into the 20s in the southeast Sunday. Racine was the warmest spot with 29. Beloit had 26, Milwaukee 24, Lone Rock 21 and Madison 20. However, Superior and Park Falls reached a peak of only 5.

Skies were clear in the northwest and partly cloudy to cloudy in the southeastern area today. Bozeman, Mont., hit the national low of 42 below zero early today, compared with the high of 85 Sunday at Fort Myers, Fla.

Assault Penalty 5 to 10 Years; Robbery, 5-40

In clarification of the recent arraignment of Eugene Plein, 39, 200 E. King St., on a charge of first degree assault, to which the defendant pleaded guilty, it was pointed out today that conviction on this charge carries a penalty of from 5 to 10 years.

Conviction for first degree robbery, with which Plein had been charged prior to dismissal of the original information and the filing of the assault charge, could result in a sentence of from 5 to 40 years. Because of the defendant's age he could be referred to the state Youth Conservation Commission at the time of sentencing. A pre-sentence investigation ordered by Judge Arnold Hatfield, Rochester, is being made.

Heavy Foliage Being Removed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department says that it is helping South Viet Nam wipe out heavy foliage in which Red guerrillas hide in ambush along the country's roadways.

The project, previously announced by the South Vietnamese government, involves spraying chemicals over the foliage.

So far, the State Department said Friday, one road leading from Saigon to a nearby popular seaside resort has been sprayed from the air.

The chemical plant killer used is the same as a chemical commonly used in the United States to kill weeds and does not harm human beings or animals, the department said.

3 STOCKTON GARAGES

STOCKTON, Minn. — There are three garages in Stockton instead of two as indicated in Sunday's edition. Vince Daniel, Clyde English and Melvin Brown are the proprietors. Brown also has a used carlot.

Minnesota City Family Reunited

MINNESOTA CITY, Minn. (Special) — Mrs. Mary Verdict, 82-year-old owner of a farm near here who lost her residence in a fire early Thursday morning, is back with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Bublitz, and their seven children.

Her son John brought her to his home at 674 E. Broadway, Winona, following the blaze which burned the home to the ground, but she got homesick for the children and has joined them at the R. W. Challberg residence near her farm. The Challbergs have moved to California. Vince Bublitz is caretaker.

In addition to receiving many gifts from friends, the Bublitzes received boxes of clothing and canned goods from St. Paul's Catholic Church, Minnesota City, of which they are members.

Gifts of bedding and other necessary items have poured in from Lewistown, Winona, Rollingstone and the Stockton areas. They have received new kettles, pots and pans, dishes, and toys, color books and other things for the children. Mrs. Bublitz received a cash gift of $50 from relatives, and $70 has been received for them at Swede's Tavern and the Benicke Store, Stockton.

The children returned to school today.

3 Cars Crash But Little Damage

Three moving cars collided at Wabasha and Laird streets Sunday at 3:45 p.m., but only was damaged, police said.

Drivers involved were Irene Schultz, 24, Arcadia, who was driving north on Laird; Mrs. John A. Stanek, 723 E. Sanborn St., who was traveling east on Wabasha; and Harold Warnken, 477 E. Wabasha St., who was going west on Wabasha.

Police said Mrs. Stanek's car struck the left side of the Schultz vehicle, which slid into the oncoming Warnken auto.

The right and left sides of the Schultz car received $75 damage. No charges were filed.

An intersection collision at Wabasha and Chestnut streets Sunday at 8:07 p.m. caused $325 damage to two cars but left no injuries.

Police said Eldon Decker, 163 Chaffield St., was traveling west on Wabasha and Donald Dooney, 24, 276 E. King St., was going north on Chestnut when they collided.

Damage to the left side of Decker's car totaled $175, to the right fender and front of Dooney's vehicle, $150.

put him in the jail block at 10:45. There, said Healy, Hassig attempted to set the blankets and mattress on fire and break windows. He was quieted by Sheriff Jacobs and Deputy Jerry Olson.

Judge Orders Impounding of Youth's Plates

An Iowa youth charged with driving after suspension of his Minnesota driving privileges pleaded guilty this morning in municipal court and was sentenced to a fine of $50 or 15 days in city jail.

Lloyd P. Salisbury, 21, Waterloo, Iowa, a former Winonan, paid the fine.

Municipal Judge S. D. J. Brusk also ordered Salisbury to turn in to the court for impounding the license plates and registration card of the vehicle he was driving. Salisbury said his wife owns the car.

Salisbury was arrested by police Sunday at 12:14 a.m. at St. Charles and East Mark Streets. According to his Minnesota driver's record, Salisbury has been convicted since January 1958 of drunken driving twice, driving after revocation twice, careless driving, speeding and driving in violation of a restricted license.

Another youth arrested by the Highway Patrol Jan. 12 at 8:40 p.m. on Highway 14 at Winona forfeited a $30 deposit on a charge of careless driving today. He is Stanley H. McNamer, 19, 319 Kansas St.

Ex-Convict Charged in Bank Robbery

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — An ex-convict charged with the armed robbery of the Maple Plains, Minn. State Bank appears before U.S. Commissioner William Eckley here today.

Stephen Nicholas Brandt, 31, a former Minneapolis hotel bellboy, surrendered at the FBI office here Saturday night.

William H. Williams, FBI agent in charge, said Brandt gave himself up to agents, who also recovered $1,759 described by the FBI as part of the loot from the bank holdup.

Stephen Hanrahan, 30, a former Minneapolis bartender, was arrested by the FBI Friday in connection with the bank robbery. The robbers herded bank employees into the vault, looted the money drawers and fled.

The FBI said Brandt and Hanrahan spent much money on clothing. Williams said the pair separated after the robbery, and that Brandt lived in a downtown Minneapolis hotel under an alias until surrendering.

Brandt previously was convicted of armed robbery in 1955 and was sentenced to five to seven years in the Nevada state prison. In 1957, the FBI said, he was arrested for burglary and was sentenced to one to 15 years. He was released Dec. 15, 1960.

The FBI said Brandt and Hanrahan had been inmates at the prison at the same time.

Plummer Man Filing for 7th District Post

PLUMMER, Minn. (AP) — State Rep. Ben Wichterman, Plummer, is a candidate for the Democratic-Farmer-Labor nomination for the congressional seat now held by Rep. Odin Langen, Republican.

Wichterman, 38, operator of a farm and aerial crop spraying service, announced his intentions Saturday night.

Langen represents the 8th District, which will be expanded into the 7th under the new plan reducing the number of districts from nine to eight. The new 7th takes in virtually the entire northwestern quarter of Minnesota, stretching from Kittson, Roseau and Lake of the Woods Counties on the north to Traverse, Grant and Pope on the south, and looping eastward to take in Todd, Cass and Beltrami.

Wichterman has served four terms in the House. He headed the Education Committee in the last session. The lawmaker is state DFL treasurer.

2 More Jury Cases Settled

District Court jurors this morning were informed of the settlement of two automobile accident cases that were to have been called for trial this afternoon.

The two actions, consolidated for trial, had been brought by Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Olson, 1348 W. 5th St., against Mrs. Virginia Nowatt, 175 Washington St. The Olsons sought damages totaling $25,000 in consequence of an accident involving cars driven by Olson and Mrs. Nowatt here last Jan. 29.

Attorneys advised Judge Leo F. Murphy this morning that settlements had been effected in both cases. Judge Murphy instructed Clerk of Court Joseph C. Page to tell members of the jury panel that they won't have to report for duty until Thursday at 10 a.m.

Court Split On Rights Of Prisoner

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court ruled 5-4 today a federal prisoner may not challenge his sentence on the ground he was not asked before sentencing if he had anything to say in his own behalf.

Justice Stewart delivered the majority opinion. Justice Black wrote a dissent in which Chief Justice Warren and Justices Douglas and Brennan joined.

The court decided on appeal by James Francis Hill, who was sentenced June 4, 1954, in federal court in Knoxville, Tenn. Hill was given a 20-year sentence on conviction of transporting a kidnapped person and an additional 3 years for transportation of a stolen automobile.

In 1959, Hill sought to have his sentence set aside complaining that he had been denied an opportunity to make a statement to the sentencing court and denied the right to present any information in mitigation of punishment.

Stewart's majority opinion said the trial judge's failure to follow a rule of procedure by which the defendant is to be given such an opportunity was not of itself an error that could be raised in attacking the sentence in habeas corpus proceeding.

Most of the high court's business of the day was minor in nature.

With a heavy backlog of cases before it, the Supreme Court will not hold another session for delivering opinions until Feb. 19.

Ikes Serve Cakes To Crowd of 400

The Izaak Walton League served a record 400 persons Sunday at a pancake and sausage breakfast at the group's cabin on Latch Prairie Island, an annual Winona Winter Carnival event.

This was announced by Willard Matzke, president of the Ikes Will Dilg Chapter.

Young Hobo Wins Prize After All

Earl Wadewitz, 10, 622 Lafayette St., went from rags to riches today.

Vern Smelser, program director for the city park-recreation department, said this morning Earl would receive a belated first place comic entry prize in the children's division of Saturday's Winona Winter Carnival parade.

Thus Earl, who wore a tattered hobo costume that warmed the hearts of many spectators during frigid parade weather, was tied for first place in the comic category with Elizabeth Krett, Fountain City, Wis., who was announced as winner after the parade.

Smelser said Earl, who had registered for the contest, had not appeared at the courthouse for judging before the parade. The lad had instead joined the rear section of the parade on his own, and Smelser didn't notice Earl.

"We heard a lot of nice comments about him," Smelser said.

'One Shot' Joins Carnival Royalty

Daily News photographer Merritt W. Kelley, whose shutter clicked frequently during last weekend's Winter Carnival, was unable to record one event at the queen coronation at the Oaks Saturday night.

While waiting for the coronation, Kelley was summoned by Jack Frost XII Robert P. Olson. Kelley left his camera on a table, stepped forward and received a certificate honoring him as Royal One-Shot because of his commendable economy in using Daily News film and flashbulbs.

Director Named At Wabasha Bank

WABASHA, Minn. (Special) — A new member was elected to the board of directors of First State Bank here at the annual meeting. Mrs. Ruth G. Doffing, Hastings, succeeds Dr. C. G. Gehner, who moved to St. Paul last year.

Joseph J. Meyer, Joseph L. Halverson and A. G. Doffing, Wabasha, and Arthur R. Evans, Minneapolis, were re-elected to the board.

All present officers were re-elected, including A. G. Doffing, president; Halverson, vice president; E. G. Koopman, cashier; and Miss Kathleen Vaplan, assistant cashier.

Total resources of the bank are $4,913,000. Capital accounts total $404,850.

Boy's Finger Cut When Door Closes

A 7-year-old boy almost had one finger amputated Saturday afternoon while watching the Winter Carnival parade when he got the finger caught in a closing door.

Gary Ahrens, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ahrens, 1258 Randall St., received a cut in the left hand ring finger about 3:20 p.m. Saturday.

He was taken to the emergency room at Winona General Hospital by police. The finger was sewed up and Gary went home. He did not go to school today.

Mrs. Ahrens said she and her son were watching the parade from inside a doorway at 3rd and Johnson streets. The temperature was zero.

As someone went out the door, his mother said, Gary got his ruffled finger caught between the closing door and the doorframe.

Former Moscow Newsman Speaks At WSC Tonight

A Pulitzer-prize winning newspaperman who has observed the Soviet Union scene from that country for 12 years and is married to a Russian will speak at Somers Auditorium, Winona State College, at 8 p.m. today. The public is invited.

Eddy Gilmore has been a foreign correspondent for the Associated Press for 18 years, including that 12-year stint in the Soviet Union, but he doesn't consider himself an "expert" on the USSR. "He says an expert is one who has spent less than two weeks or more than 20 years there and he doesn't qualify."

Nevertheless, he won numerous prizes, including the Pulitzer prize, for his reporting of Soviet affairs. The big prize came for his written interview with Premier Joseph Stalin at the start of the Big Four talks in 1947.

Since completing his tour as chief of AP's Moscow bureau he has been covering the European scene.

Schwab Mansion Destroyed in $360,000 Fire

WAUKESHA, Wis. (AP) — Fire of undetermined origin destroyed a 60-year-old showplace mansion on Upper Genesee Lake early today. Philip Schwab, the owner, estimated the total loss at $360,000.

Schwab, a 45-year-old businessman, his 43-year-old wife, Mary, and their sons, Philip Jr., 15, and 17-year-old Martin, escaped without injury.

Waukesha County Deputy Sheriff Charles Flinders, first to arrive after the alarm, said flames were shooting 25 feet high out of the two-story wooden structure built on the 7½-acre estate in 1902 by Valentine Blatz, pioneer Milwaukee brewer.

It Happened Last Night Bob Hope Repeats Old Doctor Joke

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Bob Hope scared some friends here when he telegraphed them his doctor wanted him to take a rest and he might have to get a new doctor — they didn't recognize it as a version of the joke. "My doctor told me to quit drinking so I'm going to change doctors," or Joe E. Lewis' line: "My doctor told me to quit drinking or I'd be an old drunk, but do you know, there are more old drunks than there are old doctors?" . . . TECHNICOLOR

They'll Do It Every Time

By Jimmy Hatlo

By GRETCHEN L. LAMBERTON

MOST people are getting more and more sold on foreign student exchange programs (like the American Field Service) because they realize increasingly that world peace can best be achieved by the bonds of many personal friendships between young people of different nations. Young people are flexible and tolerant and have not yet jelled into stiff patterns of prejudice, and that is our best hope for world peace. I was again impressed with this truth when my neighbor, Mrs. Grant Kuchara, let me read some letters written by her niece, Mary Ann Bauer, who is a student and practice-teacher at St. Cloud State College.

Mary Ann won a 1961 scholarship to Europe that meant a whole summer of travel through Europe with a busload of other young American students. The group toured gaily through the British Isles and France where our friendship ties are already strong, but what was most interesting was their actions and feelings in the different Communist nations, particularly Russia. In East Germany the young people made friends with some of the military guards who were also very young. When Mary Ann took off her high spike heeled pumps and limped around on the cobbles-bones barefooted, a young guard lent her his own shoes to wear and carried hers for her.

In Russia they sat around picnic tables and had earnest discussions with youthful Soviet students about religion and freedom. They ate meals in Soviet school cafeterias—mostly cold potatoes, cold meat and cookies. They toured department stores and noted the women's plain old fashioned dresses and the men's loose baggy clothing. But they also appreciated the different cities "Parks of Rest and Culture" where classical symphonies were beautifully performed in the shade of old trees. In some of the more distant provinces of Russia the American group took bus trips with Soviet students, played basketball with them and took long hikes with picnic lunches.

They visited Russian farms and ate huge farm meals with young farmers. One farm meal that Mary Ann wrote about was "simply scrumptious, positively delicious" consisted of: Barbecued chicken, a baked liver-kidney-lamb dish, bread and cheese, ripe tomatoes and cucumbers, roast sucking pig, shish kebabs, barbecued ribs and for dessert ripe apricots and tea.

On the Fourth of July the Russian students of the town of American boys and girls happened to be in a surprise party. Mary Ann wrote: "They helped us celebrate the Fourth of July at a pleasant surprise party with real champagne. I really doubt if the American people would have been this willing to help a group of Soviets celebrate their October Revolution. All the Russians we've met have been very wonderful to us."

She commented, "Most Russians seem very contented. They just don't know what it means to have more freedom." When it came time to leave Russia, the young Americans had made so many friends that they felt very sad at leaving and made plans for future visits with these friends, later in America. Said Mary Ann, "Then they can see for themselves that what we told them about America is true."

Lewiston Presbyterian Officers Installed

LEWISTON, Minn. (Special) — Newly elected officers were installed Sunday at Lewiston Presbyterian Church for three year terms.

Elected Jan. 14 were Lewis McMartin Sr. and Mrs. Art Radatz, elders; Mrs. Marlan Kirkby and Thomas Robertson, deacons, and Donald Randall and Dale Bain, trustees.

Members of the nominating committee were Roger Laufenburger, Mrs. Donald Randall, Mrs. Richard Henry, Mrs. Odean Goss and William Larson.

Parked Car Hit On Blair Street

Blair, Wis. (Special) — About $400 damage was done to a parked car in Blair at 3 p. m. Friday when it was hit by a car occupied by three unidentified La Crosse youths—two boys and a girl—all under 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Tilman Johnson, rural Blair, had parked in front of the Lloyd-Johnson home on Peterson Ave. The La Crosse youths were delivering a hospital bed on a trailer to the Eric Knutson home in the city.

According to the Trempealeau County sheriff's department, the La Crosse driver apparently hit a patch of ice, causing him to swerve directly in front of Johnson's vehicle. Then the trailer swung around as he proceeded on the street and struck the back

Social Security Changes Aired In Buffalo Co.

GILMANTON, Wis. (Special) — Recent changes and benefits of the Social Security Administration were explained at a series of meetings in Buffalo County last week.

Marshall Nogle, social security field representative in Buffalo, Pierce and St. Croix counties, explained how benefits are calculated and paid to the aged, survivors and disabled persons.

Nogle pointed out that benefits are now paid to men at 62, with seven percent reduction for each year the worker is under 65. Survivors dependent on a worker covered by Social Security can collect benefits at the time of the worker's death. He also noted that benefits are being paid to persons of any age who are disabled, providing they have paid in 20 working quarters.

MAXIMUM benefits for a worker retiring at 65 are now $123 per month and the minimum has been recently increased from $33 to $40 monthly. Persons under Social Security may earn $1,200 per year without refunding any benefits. Income between $1,200 and $1,700 requires $1 reduction from benefits for every $2 earned.

Nogle said receipts from rent, interest dividends and life insurance are not figured as income. He also pointed out that many workers who are eligible for benefits may work part of a year and earn regular salaries, then collect benefits during months of unemployment.

"Many persons now 62 years and older may still collect some benefit while working at their regular job," Nogle said. He added that it is important to notify the social security office as soon as a worker becomes 62. Nogle also said that many people who think they are not eligible for benefits are because a husband or wife, now dead, may have paid the taxes.

NOGLE explained that a worker retiring and drawing benefits may discontinue collecting monthly checks and go back to work, then build up his account and draw again later with larger benefits than before.

More information about social security and recent amendments in the administration can be explained at the social security offices at Eau Claire or Winona.

The series of Buffalo County meetings was sponsored by the Buffalo County Homemakers, with Miss Pauline Pochler, Buffalo County home agent, Alma, in charge.

Fugitive Caught In Atlanta Lived In Minneapolis

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) —Edward Wayne Edwards, 28, one of the FBI's 10 most wanted fugitives, was arrested here Saturday and federal agents said he admitted using the name "Jerry Love" while living in Minneapolis recently.

Edwards and his wife, Marlene, 19, were brought before U.S. Commissioner Frank A. Holden and both waived rights to a removal hearing. Both were turned over to U.S. marshals to await removal, presumably to Akron, Ohio, where Edwards was wanted in connection with a bank robbery last Tuesday.

Bond was set at $50,000 each in connection with the Akron robbery.

Mrs. Edwards wept during her appearance before the U. S. Commissioner.

The FBI said Edwards made no statement during an interview about having posed as a doctor or psychiatrist in Minneapolis.

Minneapolis Det. Insp. Calvin Hawkins last week said Edwards had used the name "Dr. Jerry Love" while in Minneapolis from last Nov. 22 until Jan. 14. Hawkins said several women had received pills from Edwards as he played the doctor role. One of the "patients" went to police when she noticed the man had a pistol, but Edwards eluded arrest.

A telephone tip about a man who had paid cash for an expensive car and stacks of new clothes led to Edwards' arrest here. Edwards was sleepy-eyed and clad only in his shorts when he answered detectives' knock at his apartment door. Edwards offered no resistance and laughed and talked freely with federal agents later.

The Minneapolis Tribune, in a copyrighted story, said three Minneapolis policemen spent part of Jan. 8 in Edwards' apartment in the Minnesota city. The article said Edwards called police to report several items had been stolen from his quarters. The officers who talked to him about the reported theft had not seen the FBI's "wanted" poster bearing Edwards' picture, and thus no arrest was made.

Dan Thompson, Maurice Ewing and Henrik Herness as the music committee.

Dorcas Society officers are Mrs. Duane Pifer replacing Mrs. L. L. Patterson, president; Mrs. Patterson replacing Mrs. Henrik Herness, vice president; Mrs. Maurice Ewing replacing Mrs. Horace Grover, secretary; Mrs. Kenneth Palmer replacing Mrs. Pifer, treasurer.

Baptist Men's Fellowship officers: Ralph Thompson replacing Horace Grover, president; Kenneth Berdan replacing Ernest Rasmussen, vice president and Kenneth Palmer replacing Duane Pifer, treasurer.

DEAR ABBY:

Wed 20 Years, Hubby Revolts

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I wonder what has come over my husband. We have been married almost 20 years and he has started to act rather peculiar lately. He goes out alone on weekends, all shaved and cleaned up and doesn't come home until early in the morning. When I ask him where he's been, he says it's none of my business. He is so afraid I will look in his wallet he sleeps with his pants on all night. I don't like to fight in front of the children, but I would like to have it out with him. I think he has somebody else. How can I find out without asking him?

WANTS THE TRUTH

DEAR WANTS: What's the matter with asking him? A man who sleeps with his pants on all night has really got both feet into it. Maybe his head needs examining as well as his wallet. Don't let this peculiar behavior continue unexplained.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 27-year-old mother of three. This may sound silly but I would like to look my age. Salesmen come to my door and ask to speak to my mother. Recently, a 19-year-old kid kept making eyes at me. He thought I was my husband's kid sister. This kind of thing goes on all the time. I dread going anywhere where liquor is served because I must always show proof of my age, and then sometimes they don't believe me. They all say it is my baby face and slim figure. What can I do, Abby, short of wearing old ladies' dresses and dyeing my hair gray?

DEAR LOOKS: Your "problem" would be a welcome one to many. For the present, dress your age, act it and count your blessings. Time will solve your "problem."

DEAR ABBY: Last Friday I called my sister and invited her and her husband to come for Sunday dinner at one in the afternoon. She said she'd ask her husband and call me back. At 1:15 on Sunday she called and said she "forgot" about it, and asked if we still wanted them. I said the roast was in the oven, and if they came at 2:00 p.m. it would be fine. She said they were just eating a dinner of spareribs as they had his brother and his wife for dinner, but they would all be hungry about 7:00 p.m. and could they come then.

Wanting to keep peace in the family, I told them to come at 7:00 p.m. They came at 7:00 and ate and ran, and I was in the kitchen doing dishes at 11 at night. Should I have let her push me around this way, or should I have told her to go jump in the lake?

DEAR PUSHED: The object of inviting guests for dinner is not merely to "feed" them. It's the fun and sociability of it. If it were only a matter of quieting the hunger pains, you could have sent them some sandwiches and told them to stay home. I think you were pushed too far.

Accident Driver
Pays Fine of $25

A driver who lost control of her car and rolled it over in a ditch near Dakota early Sunday morning pleaded guilty to a charge of careless driving this noon before Goodview Justice Lewis Albert.

Miss Gloria Torgerson, 18, 520 Wilson St., was sentenced to a fine of $25 and $5 costs. She paid the fine.

Deputies John Schneider and Elroy Balk reported that Miss Torgerson was driving north on Highway 61 about two miles north of Dakota Sunday at 1:50 a.m. when she lost control.

Her car went into the ditch at the left side of the road, traveled about 50 feet, rolled over, continued another 25 feet, then came to a stop, resting on its wheels and facing south. She was not injured. Damage to her car totaled $200.

NEEDED: NEW EXCUSE

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — A campus bus system has been started at the sprawling University of Florida to help students make their classes on time.

Students complained that dormitories, fraternity and sorority houses were so far from classroom buildings it was impossible to get to class without being tardy. Student government leaders set up the new campus bus system to provide express service for the first three class changes each morning and the lunch break.

Two-State Deaths

Mrs. Herman Galloway, MONDOVI, Wis. (Special) — Mrs. Herman Galloway, 73, St. Paul, former Mondovi resident, died Saturday morning at St. John's Hospital, St. Paul, after a three-day illness.

Claude Langlois

DURAND, Wis. (Special) — Claude Langlois, 33, director of the Pepin County welfare department 19 years, died suddenly of a heart attack while attending 11 o'clock Mass at St. Mary's Catholic Church Sunday.

He had had two heart attacks in previous years but was apparently in good health and prepared for breakfast for his family before attending church. He slumped over while kneeling and died shortly thereafter in the church basement, where friends were administering artificial respiration.

He was born Feb. 26, 1908, at Melton, Ashland County, Wis., son of Joseph and Emma Langlois. He was a graduate of Superior State College. He came here from Price County.

He married Emma Harvath of Phillips, Wis., in November 1943. Survivors are: His wife, five sons, William, the oldest child, junior at Durand public school, and Joseph, Daniel, John and Theodore, the youngest, in second grade; three daughters, Mary Ann, sophomore at St. Mary's High School, and Margaret Ruth and Nancy Ellen, in St. Mary's grade school; his mother, Mrs. Emma Langlois, Manitowish, Wis.; five brothers, Carl, Manitowish, Edward, Crescent City, Calif., Leo, Ashland, Wis.; Theodore, Black River Falls, and William, Milwaukee, and one sister, Mrs. Bernard (Ruth) Soukup, Detroit, Mich.

A funeral Mass will be said at St. Mary's Church Wednesday at 10 a.m. by the Very Rev. Stephen Anderl. Burial will be in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Friends may call beginning this evening at Rhiel Funeral Home here. The Rosary will be said at 8 p.m. today and Tuesday.

Ed Meade

OSSEO, Wis. (Special) — Funeral services for Ed Meade, 76, a resident of Osseo the past few years who died Thursday at Rose Lane Nursing Home, Fairchild, Wis., were held Sunday at Fairchild Methodist Church. The Rev. Homer Fintell officiated. Burial was in Fairchild Cemetery.

Born in 1885 at Green Bay, Wis., Mr. Meade moved to Fairchild at the age of nine. He worked as a lumberman for two years and then as a clerk. He retired in 1940.

He married the former Lila Kueth in 1900. She died in 1947. He married Ella Van Auken Brooks in 1946 and two years ago they moved to Osseo. He entered the nursing home a week ago.

Survivors include: His wife and two sisters, Mrs. Lillian Van Lau, California, and Mrs. John Cayo, Green Bay.

BLANKETS ASKED
NEW YORK (AP) — Appeals for blankets to relieve suffering around the world are being sounded just now by two agencies concerned about the plight of refugees and victims of natural disaster.

Church World Service reports its stock of blankets practically exhausted. And the American Friends Service Committee is asking for 50,000 blankets, as well as cash gifts, for use in its work with Algerian refugees in Tunisia and Morocco.

KENNEDY

in public policy for economic stability since the employment act itself.

The prime goal for 1963 is a 4 per cent unemployment rate, Kennedy said. He called this a "temporary target," one-third below the present 6.1 per cent rate of joblessness.

With it, the President said, would come these record-breaking dollar measurements of prosperity.

Sixty billion dollars of before-tax business profits, as against $46 billion last year and a hoped-for $56 billion this year.

Some $320 billion in wages and salaries, against $280 billion in 1961.

About $600 billion worth of output of goods and services, far above last year's $521 billion, and this year's anticipated $565 billion to $570 billion.

Kennedy stressed that while "the material gains are themselves staggering," as blueprinted by his report, his goal for unemployment—down to 5 per cent by the end of this year, 4 per cent by mid-1963—were not the final objectives.

"We cannot afford to settle for any prescribed level of unemployment," the message said.

He replied to the outcry already raised in Congress by the first mention of his standby tax and public work proposals in the State of the Union message. The revenue loss would be smaller than what a recession costs in pay and production losses and shrunken tax collections, he said. And Congress would write into the law the safeguards to protect its taxing power, he argued.

"I am not asking Congress to delegate its power to levy taxes," Kennedy added, "but to authorize a temporary, and emergency suspension of taxes by the President subject to the checkrein of Congressional veto—in situations where time is of the essence."

"The time is ripe and the need apparent to equip the government to act more promptly, more flexibly, and more forcefully to stabilize the economy."

Before proposing a tax cut, he explained, the President would make a finding that such action is required under the Employment Act. He then would submit to Congress "a proposed temporary uniform reduction in all individual income tax rates" of not more than 5 percentage points.

This change would take effect 30 days after submission "unless rejected by a joint resolution of Congress." This means both the House and Senate would have to veto.

The tax cut "would remain in effect six months, subject to revision or renewal by the same process"—that is, by presidential action, subject to veto—"or extension by a joint resolution of Congress."

In equivalent detail Kennedy spelled out his request for power to "accelerate and initiate" up to $2 billion of works projects when unemployment is rising.

The President could act, under this plan, within two months after the unemployment rate (1) had risen in at least three out of four months and (2) had risen at least 1 percentage point higher than its level four months earlier. These time periods could be lengthened if Congress preferred, the message indicated.

Before taking action, the President would have to make a finding that "current and prospective economic developments" required such measures, under the Employment Act.

He then could commit these sums:

Up to $750 million in speeding up direct federal outlays previously authorized by Congress.

Up to $750 million for grants in aid to state and local governments.

Up to $250 million more to be distributed among the three preceding categories as the President saw fit.

The power would expire automatically in 12 months unless extended by Congress, but the program could be ended at any time by the President.

Kennedy said any of the four recessions since World War II would have met this triggering formula.

He predicted that the first impact of the spending in orders, contracts and speed-up will be felt within one to two months after the procedure was invoked.

His proposals for bolstering jobless pay were familiar in the Man Sentenced

For Taking Coat

At Church Sunday

Over the past weekend police reported one man arrested for stealing a child's overcoat, a break-in attempt at a service station, a theft at an automatic laundry, vandalism at Winona State College and several hubcap thefts.

Delmar J. Bartsch, 50, St. Charles, pleaded guilty this morning in municipal court to a charge of larceny after being arrested for taking a child's overcoat from First Congregational Church Sunday morning.

BARTSCH WAS sentenced to a fine of $25 or eight days in city jail by Municipal Judge S. D. J. Brusk. Bartsch was committed.

Bartsch was arrested by Peter Wolfe, 4228 9th St., Goodview, who said he saw Bartsch take the coat from the church about 11:40 a.m. Sunday. Wolfe brought Bartsch to the police station.

Quentin Schmitz, 1415 W. 4th St., reported to police that someone broke the lock on the outside door of a restroom at Smith's Spur service station, at the junction of Highway 14 and 61, Saturday night. The person apparently did not gain entry to the main part of the station. Nothing appeared to be missing.

AN UNDETERMINED amount of change was taken from a soft drink machine at the King Koin Laundry, 200 Junction Ave., Sunday night, Fred A. Hix, owner, reported to police. Someone pried open the machine in the building, which is open 24 hours a day.

Music-hating vandals broke into the bandroom at Winona State College between Saturday night and Sunday night and dented one horn and disarranged other instruments. Damage was minor.

Robert Kratz, 174 E. King St., told police that someone stole four hubcaps from his car Sunday before 10:45 p.m. His car was parked on the National Tea Co. lot.

John Mayek, 1014 E. King St., complained that someone stole four hubcaps from his car. He discovered the theft when he returned to his car Sunday at 11 p.m. It was parked in the Peerless Chain Co. lot.

main, having been laid before Congress last year and modeled after the temporary measures taken by Congress in the last two recessions.

"It is time now for permanent legislation to bring this well-tested stabilizer more smoothly into operation when economic activity declines," Kennedy urged.

He proposed extending the benefit period by as much as 13 weeks for laid-off employees who had spent at least three years in jobs covered by the unemployment compensation system.

Benefits should be lengthened similarly for other workers, Kennedy said, when joblessness is widespread. This could be done by presidential proclamation when insured unemployment reaches 5 per cent and when the number of workers who have exhausted their benefits over a three-month period reaches 1 per cent of covered employment.

Kennedy suggested "incentives" for the states to improve their jobless benefits, so that most idlers would receive at least half their average weekly wage.

The payroll tax which finances the program should be applied to the first $4,000 of earnings instead of the present $3,000, he said.

Kennedy suggested that Congress "will wish to examine carefully" proposals for removal of the ceiling on the federal debt and the 4 1/2 per cent ceiling on the interest rates on Treasury bonds. But he did not directly ask their removal.

However, in his budget message Kennedy asked that the "temporary" debt ceiling be boosted to $300 billion. The debt now is pushing against the present limit of $290 billion.

In his report Kennedy also urged an increase in pay for members of the Federal Reserve Board and adjustment of the term of its chairman to make it expire simultaneously with the start of a new presidential term.

Kennedy also asked Congress to act on the program announced by Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon last fall to free silver from government control and halt the issuance of "silver certificates."

Bitter Cold
Over Much
Of Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Eccentric winter hit Southern California with snow and freezing temperatures today after "whitening" San Francisco with its first measurable snowfall in 30 years.

Far to the East, bitter cold with readings ranging down to 42 below zero blanketed wide sections of the north central portion of the country.

Snow fell on the Hollywood, Calif., freeway and spread a white cover over Pasadena, Burbank, Studio City and North Hollywood.

The snowfall was the first of any consequence in the Los Angeles area in 13 years. North-bound traffic was held up on U.S. 99 north of Los Angeles by snow and stalled vehicles.

Temperatures dipped to 30 degrees at Palmdale, 35 in Burbank, 40 in downtown Los Angeles.

In Bozeman, Mont., the mercury fell to -42. Drummond, Mont., reported -40. Rawlins, Wyo., -34 and Denver -14.

The cold extended eastward to Iowa where Lemars had a 13 reading.

Some higher elevation in the Rockies had 18 inches of new snow.

Considerable fog blanketed most of Georgia, the Western Carolinas, Northern Florida, Eastern Alabama and parts of Eastern Tennessee.

The fog forced suspension of jet plane travel at the Atlanta airport.

Temperatures on the Pacific Coast ranged from the 20s to the 30s in the central and northern portions, and in the 30s and 40s in the south.

In the Southwest readings were mostly in the 40s and 50s, and from zero upward in the upper Mississippi Valley. In the New England states, temperatures in the teens and 20s; in the 40s and 50s along the southern Atlantic coast and in the 60s and 70s in Florida.

Rain and freezing drizzle fell over a band about 200 miles wide from northern Texas northeastward into southern Illinois and Indiana.

A huge mass of snow—estimated at more than 200,000 tons—slid down Colorado's highest mountain Sunday, engulfed four houses and killed at least six persons at Twin Lakes, a central Rocky Mountain village about 140 miles southwest of Denver.

Nearly two inches of rain fell late Sunday and early today at West Plains, Mo., and 67 at Harrison, Ark.

Portions of California were slowly returning to normal after a rare wintertime mélange of weather.

In the Los Angeles area Saturday, nearly 1 1/2 inches of precipitation was recorded in the form of snow, rain, hail and sleet.

San Francisco had its first measurable snowfall in 30 years, ranging up to three inches. It was the heaviest snowfall since 1887. In the coldest portion of Northern California, the temperature dipped to 15 degrees.

The finals of the Bing Crosby pro-amateur golf tournament on California's Monterey Peninsula.

were postponed 24 hours because of snow, rain, sleet and hail. Heavy fog blanketed sections of Texas Sunday, closing many airports and causing heavy traffic problems. Six deaths were attributed to the weather in traffic accidents. The temperature dropped 30 degrees in three hours early today at Fort Worth.

Thoughts at Random— From Editor's Notebook

ROCHESTER, MINN.—When you come out with a new Sunday paper sometimes you get something you didn't figure on—and in the case of this editor it was stomach ulcers, currently being treated at a hospital in this world-famous medical center. Birth pains, somebody called them—birth of a Sunday newspaper pains.

And why, I ask, should the editor get ulcers when the staff produces the paper? Gordon Holte, the Sunday editor, is responsible for the Sunday magazine which others in this profession say is outstanding. City Editor Adolph Bremer thinks up the ideas and directs the production, through his staff, of the general news sections; Managing Editor Bill Cole selects, edits and headlines the state, national and international copy, writes the weather stories as well as oversees the expanded women's section and society pages being so ably handled by Patricia Willems, with the assistance of Mrs. Paul Pletke, during the serious illness of May Murray, women's editor, who is being treated in another hospital here, and Augie Karcher, with the assistance of Gary Evans and Outdoor Writer Lefty Hymes who has a keen sense of value of pictures, turns out the four-page yellow sports section which is definitely of metropolitan stature. To complete it, our slaving area editor, Ruth Rogers, turns out the "Sunday News Goes Calling" pages plus voluminous other copy. Merritt Kelley takes the pictures and Harold Knoll and Dave Harris turn out special features and handle routine news assignments.

A GREAT MANY people have written to say they like our new Sunday paper and newspapermen in the Twin Cities have said it is one of the best for a city of our size they have ever seen. They say our colored comic section rates with any throughout the country and The Associated Press has requested, and placed on its national wire photo network, two of the pictures we have used for the front cover of our Sunday magazine.

Biggest criticism seems to come from those who miss the Saturday paper and from subscribers in area communities who get their paper by mail and are used to calling for it late every afternoon at their post office. Post offices are closed on Sunday, however, and they can't pick it up there so that presents a problem. This is easily solved, though, by having it carrier-delivered and while there is a slight increase in price for this additional service, your Sunday paper with its scores of features, magazine, comics and late news stories will be on your porch when you get up Sunday morning.

NOW BACK TO THIS hospital business. There are X-rays for this and X-rays for that and tests of all kinds including one known as the "magic wand." And on the outside of my door in big caps are the letters CVR. This could mean "cardio vascular rheumatism" or "ceiling and visibility rugged," for all I know, but nobody tells me nothing!

They had me on a "strict ulcer" diet for a couple of days and when I complained to one of the battery of doctors who makes a daily call at my bedside that I was dying of malnutrition, they agreeably changed it to the "liberal ulcer" diet. Along about noon a dietician's helper came in with a tray labeled "strict ulcer" and five minutes later along came another one marked "liberal ulcer." Well, what would you do? Same as I did, I suppose. I ate 'em both. And now, of all things, they have me on the "ulcer A" diet and all I've had so far today is a small glass of half milk and half cream. (Sure glad I ate both those trays yesterday.)

Day before yesterday a nurse came to my door with a wheel chair and said, "Hop in." I protested and told her I was just as able to walk as she was but she said, "Oh, don't argue. You're paying for it so you might just as well have a free ride."

I asked her where we were going and she said, over to "E & G."

"What's that?" I asked.

"Darned if I know," she said, but soon we were wheeling into the E & G section which for all I know meant eyes, ears and guts.

"What's your name?" asked the nurse on duty and when I told her "Mr. Clossway" she asked abruptly, "What's your first name?" When I told her "Gordon" she looked rather sharply at the wheel pusher and said, "He's not the one! I wanted the one in 2-121 not 2-131. Take him back!" And that was the end of that little episode.

THEY HAVE ONE examination known as K.U.B. I didn't have any idea what that was but I was on a tour of Canada with a group of American editors last summer and at its conclusion we were initiated into the K.O.B. Club which meant Know Ontario Better. I thought, well, these Medies never could spell anyway so maybe they had heard about my trip and were talking about "Know Ontario Better"—but I found out later it was a kidney X-ray.

There are just a couple of things I like to ask about this—and about all hospitals for that matter. Why do they insist on serving parsley with every single meal—that is, when you get a meal—and why do they have sheets that are rougher than coarse sandpaper? Why in h— can't they have sheets that are nice and soft and comfortable like the ones we have at home?

But the sum and substance of it all seems to be that it is a pretty lousy and

How Do You Stand, Sir?

All-Important Issue Raised

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

"Insight and Outlook" is an excellent magazine published at the University of Wisconsin. In the March issue Gale Pfund, the editor of this publication, wrote:

"The Soviet Union is scoring victory after victory in the cold war, quite basically because of our own moral indecision, which prevents our taking a firm stand against the demands of Mr. Khrushchev. We, as a nation, have not firmly decided which system, capitalism or communism, ought to prevail. Ostensibly, we brandish our swords against an enemy whose avowed methods and purposes represent everything we abhor, but in reality we pursue policies more closely akin to his ideal than to our own."

"We have overburdened private property and private ownership as a means of production with government regulations and controls. We have convinced ourselves of the equitability of the progressive income tax (which in the USSR isn't nearly as graduated as our own) the advisability of government handouts, the morality of federal social control and the expediency of governmental intervention in the economy and federal manipulation of the money supply. All of which is closer to Karl Marx than Adam Smith."

"ALTHOUGH WE do not necessarily hold the philosophical assumptions of historical and dialectical materialism, we nevertheless pattern our social and economic behavior directly upon the collectivist ideal. How can a nation, whose compromise with welfareism is more in sympathy with the Communist ideal than the American, make a firm moral resolve that Western institutions ought to prevail and are ultimately worth fighting for? How can the United States stand up against a government whose strength and determination are unparalleled in the history of the world?"

"In my time, it hasn't been able to do either. The moral irresolution of the West is pitted against the maniacal fanaticism of those in the Kremlin who labor day and night under the absolute conviction that communism is the only proper system of political, social and economic organization."

"WE ARE ASKING the Free World to join us in a cause, of whose merits we are still not firmly convinced. The Soviets, on the other hand, profess their beliefs with admirable solidarity and firmness, and with an unwavering ideological consistency even more appealing to some nations than free American dollars."

To my mind, the editor of this college publication has raised the single question which must be answered before we can hope to have peace or to emerge as victors in the cold war. How do you stand, sir?

HAUNTED HOUSE

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Democrats Overlook What They Attacked Under Ike

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Some of the Democrats who shouted loudly and continuously about conflicts of interest in the Eisenhower administration are now loath to talk about possible conflicts in the Kennedy administration — especially the dubious position of John A. McCone, new chief of Central Intelligence.

This column was one which helped expose some of the conflicts among Eisenhower officials, therefore feels obligated to do the same with Democrats.

One of McCone's most important investments is in Standard Oil of California and Standard Oil of New Jersey. He has been a director of the former, and its report to stockholders as of Aug. 1, 1961, lists him as owning 18,318 shares, on top of which he received a stock dividend of 915 shares, which, at the current value of $53.50, gives the new CIA chief an investment of $1,028,985.50 in Standard of California.

This makes him the second largest stockholder in a company whose profits and future are materially influenced by Central Intelligence.

McCone, when up for confirmation to post government posts, has declined to sell his stock in these oil companies but put them in a trust. Secretaries of Defense Charley Wilson and Robert McNamara would have been delighted to put their stock in General Motors and Ford in trust, but were not permitted to do so.

IT HAPPENS THAT Standard of California and Standard of New Jersey control the Arabian Oil Company which operates perhaps the most fabulous oil concession in the world, with reserves estimated to last around 100 years.

It also happens that the Near East is a field where Central Intelligence has played an all-powerful role and usually swung its weight against Israel, the only democratic country in that area. The CIA has probably influenced policy more than the State Department, and it has nearly always sided with the oil companies.

Here are some illustrations of how events have been influenced in the Near East:

ILLUSTRATION No. 1—In 1952, CIA maneuvered an Egyptian revolt that kicked out King Farouk and substituted the Nasser rule. This may or may not have been a good thing, but there is no question but that the coup was organized by CIA, that it led to the strengthening of Egypt in the Arab world.

ILLUSTRATION No. 2—When John Foster Dulles sent George Allen, then assistant secretary of state, with a special message to President Nasser, it was the Central Intelligence director for the Near East, Kim Roosevelt, who told Nasser to ignore the Dulles message.

ILLUSTRATION No. 3—During the Suez war of 1956, it was Central Intelligence which sent in the reports that guided President Eisenhower in making his decisions. These reports may have been completely conscientious and accurate. But they ought not to be made by a director who has heavy investments in the major American oil company affected by the Suez war.

ILLUSTRATION No. 4—Just prior to the Suez war, Nasser put the bite on the Arabian-American Oil Company, through his friend King Saud of Saudi Arabia, to collect $200,000,000 of advance oil royalties. This was used, directly, to purchase the huge arsenal of Czech arms which Egypt amassed on Israel's border prior to the Suez war. It was this build-up of arms that touched off the war.

ILLUSTRATION No. 5—During the Suez war, Syria served an ultimatum that it would cut the pipelines crossing her territory if any American oil were sold to the French and British. The United States promptly curtailed all oil shipments to the French and British. The CIA director who must necessarily participate in such a decision should not be a heavy stockholder in oil companies that are affected.

ILLUSTRATION No. 6—During the first three months of 1957, immediately following the Suez crisis, Standard of New Jersey raked in the huge income of $23,000,600—16 percent more than in the same period of the previous year. In the same period, California jumped its profits 13 percent. This resulted directly from the Suez crisis and a resultant boost in the price of oil. The man who heads CIA, even though he leans over backward to be impartial in his judgments, should not be a big stockholder in companies likely to profit from his decisions.

ILLUSTRATION No. 7—It was CIA which secretly organized the political maneuver which kicked Premier Mossadeq out of Iran. He had seized the Anglo-Iranian oil refinery, a competitor of Aramco. The head of CIA, with oil stock, should not be in a position where he has to undertake operations for or against competitors of the companies in which he has an interest.

ILLUSTRATION No. 8—The oil-rich sheikhdom of Kuwait right now is in throes of trouble with oil-rich Iraq. Britain gets most of its oil from Kuwait. Some of Kuwait's oil also goes to Sun Oil, Union Oil, and Gulf—all competitors of Standard of New Jersey and Standard of California in which McCone holds heavy interest. Again, a CIA director, no matter how conscientious, should not be a man who directly or indirectly must handle operations which could affect his own companies or his competitors.

ILLUSTRATION No. 9—During the Suez war, Syria served an ultimatum that it would cut the pipelines crossing her

TODAY IN WORLD AFFAIRS

Time to Bring Law to Congo

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — The massacre of at least 18 missionaries and many other civilians in the Congo points up the failure of the United Nations expedition to restore order and to impress the native troops that the lives and property of foreign citizens must be respected.

So much emphasis has been placed on "self-determination" and "independence" for the African countries that relatively little attention has been paid to the utter indifference of many local groups to the need for protecting foreign residents.

The U.N. has admitted many countries as members which are incapable of self-government at this time. They will certainly not be educated or trained for this role unless the U. N. is willing to take steps to punish the murderers and enforce principles of international law.

Unfortunately, mass acries have occurred in recent months without any action having been taken by the U. N., and it may be that the native groups now feel free to do as they please in the belief that no disciplinary action will ever be taken from the outside.

It wasn't so many years ago when powerful nations were quick to take punitive steps if any of their own citizens or their property were molested. In recent years the propaganda against "colonialism"—stimulated by Communist sources—has caused the major powers to hesitate to use force to protect their nationals. They are reaping the consequences of their policy of neglect.

Some of the big mining interests which have invested huge sums in the Congo have built hospitals and schools. They have performed many services similar to those which the "peace corps" of the United States is being widely publicized as planning to do in Africa. But the big foreign interests now find their properties imperiled and their employees threatened so that continuity of mining operations has been made very difficult.

SOONER OR later the U.N. will have to go back to first principles in international law—acts that assure the protection of the lives and property of foreign residents.

To read that 13 priests—16 Belgian and 2 Dutch citizens—were "whipped, mowed down by gunfire, and their bodies horribly mutilated," with the same kind of treatment accorded other civilians, brings to mind similar instances of savagery which have occurred in Africa since "independence" was granted to various colonies there.

The fact that each one of the African countries, even if it has only a population of 500,000, now has a vote equal to that of the United States in the U.N. general assembly will make Americans wonder if some revamping of the whole charter is not in order. Voting strength in the U.N. should be based on the literate population. This might give Russia a few more votes than it has today, but it would also give Latin-American countries more votes and more to the other countries of the free world. Actually, the Soviet Union today has more votes in the U.N. than does the United States.

This was agreed to by the Roosevelt administration in 1945 on the theory that the free world would still have a huge majority. Unfortunately, with the admission of half-civilized countries of Africa, it is easy for the Communists today to infiltrate them and obtain control of their votes in the U.N.

THE RECENT massacres in the Congo, for instance, are being attributed to troops under the leadership of Antoine Gizenga, a Communist stooge who was then deputy premier of the central Congo government. There will be little chance of seeing a U.N. resolution passed which would authorize collective military action against the perpetrators of the atrocities just reported from Leopoldville.

The soldiers who committed the crime were in the forces of the central Congolese government, which is fully recognized by the U.N. Unless steps are taken to hold the central government accountable for what has happened and a show of military force is made, the incidents are likely to be repeated. The time for forceful action to protect foreign lives and property in the Congo would seem to be at hand.

Whenever a country shows itself totally incapable of self-government, the establishment of an international trusteeship would appear to be a logical formula to apply. The Congo is desperately in need of such a set-up. It can be continuously supervised by the U.N. complete self-government could be granted when the capacity to live up to international obligations was assured.

So I say, Minnesotans, beware. I'm a former Minnesotan.

An Arizonian
Discusses Taxes

To the Editor:

In answer to Loyde Pfeiffer's comments regarding a state sales tax:

Mr. Pfeiffer apparently hasn't traveled to Arizona when he talks about how good a sales tax is and who pays it. The people who live here pay it. Not the tourist. We pay the sales tax on all food, clothing, drugs, dry cleaning, laundry, tobacco and alcoholic beverages.

On the other hand there's no sales tax when you eat at a restaurant where a greater part of the winter visitors eat. Besides that we also have a state income tax.

The people of Minnesota should be very cautious about getting a sales tax with the hope of cutting down the state income tax. It would be the same old story of when they put the surtax on to pay the soldier's bonus. After the bonus was paid for, the surtax was still on, in fact with an increase.

So I say, Minnesotans, beware. I'm a former Minnesotan.

MEN PAST 40

Troubled with GETTING UP NIGHTS
Pains in BACK, HIPS, LEGS
Tiredness, LOSS OF VIGOR

If you are a victim of these symptoms then your troubles may be traced to Glandular Inflammation. Glandular Inflammation is a constitutional disease and medicines that give temporary relief will not remove the causes of your troubles. Neglect of Glandular Inflammation often leads to premature senility, and to incurable conditions.

The past year men from 1,000 communities have been successfully treated here at Excelsior Springs. They have found soothing relief and a new zest in life.

RECTAL-COLON DISORDERS
Are often associated with Glandular Inflammation. These disorders, we can treat, at the same time we treat Glandular Inflammation.

REDUCIBLE HERNIA
is also amenable to the same treatment. Surgical treatment that we have developed. Full details of this treatment given in our Free Book.

New Ills Can Bother Us

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

"Dear Dr. Molner: I have been waiting for an article about tic-dol-a-rue. I am a sufferer of the pesky thing.

Does an alcohol injection for it throw your head out of kilter, affecting eyesight and hearing, and causing aches and pains? What about dilantin pills?

You write about so many things the average person never heard about that I'm sure you would include tic-dol-a-rue.—Mrs. A. R."

Fifty or even 20 years ago I'd have written a quite different column, emphasizing the things that imperiled us or hurt us then. I'd have pounded away at getting safe city water supplies, vaccinating against smallpox, giving babies Vitamins C and D, and so on.

Society has learned its lessons well in many such regards, so it's time to move on to other problems. We no longer die in youth from smallpox.

Instead, we grow to an age at which entirely different things bother us—like you r problem.

Your spelling follows the sound of this ailment very well; the real spelling, however, is tic douloureux. It is French.

Tic douloureux is a form of neuralgia, affecting a main nerve of the head and face. It is one of the most agonizing pains affecting man, when it is severe. Cause? Not known. The victim usually is well on in years and more often a woman than a man. The pain is more likely to be on the right than the left side.

The Excelsior Medical Clinic, devoted to the treatment of diseases peculiar to older men, has a new FREE BOOK that tells how these troubles may be corrected by proven NON-SURGICAL TREATMENTS. This book may prove of utmost importance in your life. No obligation.

Singer Takes Carnival Talent Show Honors

Merna Robbins, La Crosse, Wis., who sang "Up a Lazy River," took first place in the final Winter Carnival event, the talent show Sunday evening in the Senior High School auditorium.

Second place in the eight entries went to Baker and Brewer, a tap and ballet dance team from La Crosse. "Tears On My Pillow," sung by Connie Flemming, Stoddard, won third, and the Constellations, an instrumental and vocal group from Winona State College and Winona Senior High School, was fourth.

Jack Frost (Bob Olson) presented the winners with scrolls and gave the Hawaiian Dancers—Amy Marguame, Sandy Maui and Alma Tashiro—a scroll for their act. He also presented the parade awards. Talent show entries and Grand Ole Opry stars Justin Tubb and Red Sovine appeared before a receptive near capacity crowd. The SPEBSQSA Hiawatha Valley Chorus, Junior Ferguson and the Country Round-Up Boys and last year's talent show winner, Dave Kennedy and the Ambassadors were guest stars.

Public Library Movie Corrects Stonehenge Lore

Did Merlin, legendary 5th Century magician, magically transport huge stones from Ireland to Wiltshire, England where they formed the fascinating monument of Stonehenge?

The circular setting of large standing stones is the subject of one of the new films available for loan at Winona Public Library through March 2.

Legends and misconceptions surround the monument, the oldest part of which scientists have dated at nearly 4,000 years old. For the past 300 years the public has erroneously associated Stonehenge with the Druids, members of a religious order in ancient Britain.

The 15-minute black and white film, "Stonehenge," says modern man is still puzzled about how ancient man squared and joined the huge stones.

MISS H. Alberta Seiz, librarian, announced these other films available:

"Ancient Mesopotamia," black and white, 10 minutes. "Auto Biography, black and white, 26 minutes, story of the American automobile. "Buma—African Sculpture Speaks," color, 9 minutes. "Children's Emotions," black and white, 22 minutes. "Deer Live with Danger," color, 11 minutes. "Five Colorful Birds," color, 10 minutes, goldfinch, cedar waxwing, yellowheaded blackbird, redheaded woodpecker and bluebird. "Geography," color, 6 minutes, children's book. "Home Life: 18th Century Life in Williamsburg, Va.," color, 22 minutes. "Iron Curtain Lands," black and white, 20 minutes. "Man Without a Country," black and white, 25 minutes, dramatization of story by Edward Everett Hale.

"Marian Anderson," black and white, 27½ minutes, the concert singer. "Meet Mr. Lincoln," black and white, 27 minutes. "Modern Fairyland," color, 24 minutes. "Montezuma," color, 20 minutes. "Newfoundland Sea Birds," color, 14 minutes. "People of a City," black and white, 22 minutes. Stockholm. "Quetico," color, 22 minutes, wilderness world on Ontario-Minnesota border. "Skier's Choice," color, 14 minutes. "Song of the Feathered Serpent," color, 21½ minutes, ancient and modern Mexico. "Squeak, the Squirrel," black and white, 10 minutes, animal learning. "Victoria Falls—The Smoke that Thunders," color, 11 minutes.

Buffalo City Sets Up Planning Commission

BUFFALO CITY, Wis.—A planning commission has been created by the Buffalo City Council consisting of Jack Denef, Merlin Bollinger, Charles Schlosser, O. J. Sohr, and Norman Zeichert, with H. A. Zeichert as secretary.

Salaries of city officers were set at the last council meeting as follows: Mayor, $9.50 per meeting; aldermen, $8 per meeting; and constable, $1.50 per hour plus 7 cents mileage.

Council has voted to set trailer rental fees at $8 a month.

Deficit Seen In Minnesota School Aid Fund

ST. PAUL (AP)—State Treasurer Val Bjornson said today there may be a deficit of $20 million in school aid funds by June 30, partly because iron ore tax receipts are falling far short of estimates.

He told the Minnesota State Coordinating Committee on Education that steadily rising school aids have outstripped the fund sources on which they were based.

"It seems logical that Minnesotans should begin now to face frankly the situation which simple mathematics continually emphasize," said Bjornson, "that our presently dedicated funds are no longer adequate to meet the school aid burden, and that we must go increasingly beyond such fund sources for the revenue needed."

"We can leave the fund dedication system unaltered, but we are kidding ourselves if we continue to believe it will remain adequate. Personally, I feel Minnesotans will face up to the needs of our loftiest purpose—adequate support for education."

The treasurer said earlier estimates of the impending school aid deficit had placed the figure at about $13 million, but he added that the fund will be off by almost $8 million more because appropriations were based on optimistic iron ore tax proceeds.

"There was talk during the last legislative session about a possible total of $32 million in iron ore occupation tax proceeds, payable by June 15, 1962, reflecting ore tonnage mined in 1961."

The best current estimate of the gross receipts figure from that source is now $13.8 million.

"Half of our iron ore occupation tax proceeds go into the general revenue fund, except that a 5 per cent portion is set aside for the Iron Range Resources and Rehabilitation Commission."

"The other half goes on a 40-10 basis to school support and to the University of Minnesota."

"The most accurate estimate now available indicates about $6.9 million of ore tax money reserved in this manner to meet education's needs. The 40-10 split will thus mean $5,200,000 for school aids and $1,380,000 for the university."

Weed Meeting Set at Lewiston For January 30

The annual Winona County weed conference will be 10 a.m. Jan. 30 at Lewiston City Hall, County Auditor Richard Schonover said today.

Plans for the meeting were reported in a letter received by Schonover from Duane A. Wilson, commissioner, state Department of Agriculture, Township officers and mayors or their assistants are required by law to attend. The County Board of Commissioners and the public were also invited.

Municipalities that don't have weed inspectors should appoint them before the meeting and send these inspectors to the meeting. Use of chemicals to control weeds, plant diseases and insect pests will be discussed.

Compensation Fund May Require Special Session

ST. PAUL (AP)—There is an "outside possibility," says Gov. Elmer L. Andersen, that a special session of the legislature might be called to deal with Minnesota's unemployment compensation fund.

The governor said Sunday he is seriously concerned about the low level of the fund. He said the reserve funds have dropped to a "dangerous level."

The fund had about $131 million in reserve in 1953, has been dropping ever since and is now down to $41 million. The law provides for an automatic increase in rates whenever the reserve gets below $50 million. Andersen said that this, however, has not been sufficient to stop the decline.

Andersen revealed that he met last week with Rep. Fred Cira of Aurora, liberal majority leader in the House, and Sen. John Zwach of Walnut Grove, Senate majority leader, to discuss the problem.

"The idea behind this meeting," said Andersen, "was to get agreement early on the needs so that legislation can be shaped for early passage in the 1963 regular session."

Andersen said there is no danger of the funds running out before the 1963 session.

Four Dead in Wisconsin Accidents

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The death of a Brown County woman early today and those of two men in a weekend car-train crash have brought Wisconsin's 1962 highway toll to 35, compared with 55 on this date one year ago.

Mrs. Agatha Van Pay, 51, was killed early today in the Town of Preble as she walked across Highway 141 toward home from her husband's tavern on the other side of the street in the Brown County community.

Allen C. Christianson, 26, of rural Watertown and Elmer J. Bolstad, 23, of Ashippun, were killed Saturday night in the collision of their car and a Milwaukee Road train at a crossing in Oconomowoc. The car was split and the rear section thrown about 100 yards. The auto was owned by Bolstad.

Donald Bolter, 33, of Baldwin, died Saturday of injuries suffered in a Jan. 6 collision that killed two other persons. The crash occurred in Baldwin.

Further Bird Notes

The below zero weather that we have had seems to effect the birds in various ways. First, they require more food to keep up their body heat sufficiently to withstand the severe cold. They fluff out their feathers more than usual to protect their bodies and feet and, at times, almost seem like fluffy balls.

Then, after having a good meal, some seem to prefer to linger near the house foundation, instead of flying off for a while as they do in milder weather. Others feed and then take off to return only after a lapse of time, sometimes as long as several hours.

Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Christensen, Pleasant Valley, advise that the large flock of cedar waxwings that have frequented the vicinity of their home for several weeks still make their appearance in various numbers. Last Wednesday they counted 31 near the house.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Christensen, Pleasant Valley, advise that the large flock of cedar waxwings that have frequented the vicinity of their home for several weeks still make their appearance in various numbers. Last Wednesday they counted 31 near the house. Some of which were feeding on the berries of a highbush cranberry. They may be a bit late, serving for a number of hours, or an entire day at a time, but always return for a while. They evidently make their way to some feeding grounds elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Walz, 508 E. 5th St., Winona, have had a flock of evening grosbeaks numbering from twelve to twenty-five at their feeders for a number of days. They feed primarily on sunflower seeds and then disappear for a number of hours before returning again. Mrs. Walz remarked that they seemed to be very tame, coming to a feeder that was placed at one of the windows without any hesitation whatever.

TWO EVENING grosbeaks have been frequenting the feeders at the David Sauer home, 363 E. Broadway, Winona, along with three cardinals, four bluejays, one red-bellied woodpecker, chickadees and other birds.

Miss Gladys Narveson, Spring Grove, Minn., writes that she has about the same number and varieties of birds at the feeders this winter as last, including two titmice, various woodpeckers, blue jays, chickadees, nuthatches and others. However, she has not observed any purple finches, grosbeaks, or brown creepers, and wonders what can be done to attract them.

The evening grosbeaks and purple finches may travel in small flocks of two or three on up to a dozen or more. They may pass close by some feeders without

THE IMPORTANT THINGS

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — A 7-year-old Des Moines boy handed his mother a list of telephone numbers and asked her to keep it for him "so the other kids won't get them."

The mother checked on the numbers and found that they were for a priest, a bank, a cab company and a television repairman.

Area Municipal Officers Elect

HOUSTON, Minn. — Officers were elected at an area meeting of municipal officers at the Community Kitchen here Wednesday evening.

A name for the group — a subdivision of the regional organization of the Minnesota League of Municipalities — will be selected at the next meeting to be held in Caledonia in April. Mayor Dean Dennison extended the invitation. A constitution will be adopted then.

Arthur Miller, Rushford mayor, was elected president; Bob Bedore, Houston mayor, vice president, and Gerald Koenig, Caledonia clerk, secretary-treasurer. Other villages represented were Spring Valley, Mabel, Spring Grove and Goodview.

Paul Haugen, St. Paul, representing the state league, answered questions. The group of 40 discussed policemen's hours and salary; municipal ownership of police cars and insurance coverage; liquor store manager salaries and gross receipts, and other mutual problems.

At the Caledonia meeting discussion will center around Public Employees Retirement Association problems and municipal insurance security, and municipal insurance security. Specialists in these fields will be invited to the meeting.

The group is anxious to have other villages and cities in the area join its new organization.

March of Dimes Kickoff Tuesday

The Winona County kickoff for the New March of Dimes will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the American Legion Memorial Club.

A movie showing the functions of the National Foundation in the fields of arthritis, birth defects and polio will be shown.

Mrs. Harold Thieves, county chairman, urged anyone directly involved in the campaign to attend, as well as others interested. A special invitation was issued to women who have volunteered for the Mother's March which will be next Sunday.

Other Dimes events are slated. A basketball benefit will be held Jan. 30 at Memorial Hall. Winona State College. WSC will play the Duluth Branch of the University of Minnesota. Youths will sell bread Feb. 4. Chairman for that is Vince Paul.

At the meeting Tuesday evening work kits will be distributed.

Kenya Leader Visits Israel

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — Kenya nationalist leader Tom Mboya arrived Sunday night by air with his bride for a combination honeymoon and 10-day study tour of Israel. They were married Saturday.

Mboya, invited here as guest of the government and Israel Federation of Labor, Histadrut, said he was particularly interested in the country's collective and co-operative settlements.

Hermit Revealed A Millionaire

LONDON (AP) — A Scot who lived a hermit's life for 35 years has been disclosed as one of Britain's secret millionaires.

Capt. David Lawson died last month at the age of 82. He had become a recluse after a polo accident in 1925.

His will, published Friday, showed he left 1,074,293 pounds—$3,008,010.

Villagers of Chiselhampton, Oxfordshire, near the farm on which Lawson lived in a cottage, were surprised by the amount of his estate.

"No one here thought he was even wealthy," said one villager. "He rarely went to the shops and ran a very old car."

Fillmore DHIA To Meet on Friday

PRESTON, Minn. — The annual meeting of Fillmore County Dairy Herd Improvement Association will be held at Preston Town Hall Friday at 1:30 p.m. Dr. T. D. Jorgenson, Spring Valley, will show slides of Europe and discuss dairy disease problems.

Trophies will be presented to the owner of the highest producing cow and the dairyman with the highest herd average the past year. Officers will be elected and the financial report given. Lunch will be served.

A total of 120 herds completed the year with an average of 394 pounds of butterfat per cow and a feed cost of $120 per cow.

Fillmore County Judge Reports

PRESTON, Minn. — Fillmore County Judge George O. Murray presiding over the probate and juvenile courts reported to the Fillmore County Board of Commissioners that 320 new probate cases were filed in his office in 1962 compared with 327 the previous year.

A total of 152 new estates were filed and 128 estates were closed.

The number of mental illness, inebriety and mental deficiency cases filed was 39 in 1961 compared with 30 the previous year. Appraised value of estates closed in 1961 was $1,661,452, about a million less than the previous year when there were four more estates closed.

Inheritance taxes collected in 1961 totaled $48,307, about $6,000 more than 1961. Twenty percent of inheritance taxes are returned by the state to the county.

Fees to the county amounted to $1,299.50.

In juvenile court Judge Murray handled eight adoptions last year; five dependency and neglect cases; 47 delinquencies, and 69 traffic cases.

FBI Agents Nab Parole Violator

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — FBI agents Saturday night arrested Everett Douglas Harless, 27, of Atlanta, Ga., in a Minneapolis bar. William H. Williams, FBI agent in charge, said Harless was wanted as a federal probation violator at Atlanta, on charges of check forgery at Fort Smith, Ark., on car theft charges at Nashville, Tenn. and Columbus, Ohio, and on a charge of having in his possession on his arrival in Minneapolis a car stolen in Portland, Ore.

CHICAGO (AP) — Ansten Samuelstuen of Boulder, Colo., captured his third title and became one of few repeat winners when he outclassed the field in the national ski jumping championships Sunday.

Watkins Hands Westgate 2nd Defeat 60-53

PARK-REC CITY LEAGUE

Watkins pushed itself into a two-game lead in the Park-Recreation City League Sunday as it handed Westgate its second loss of the season 60-53.

After spending one week out of second place, Standard Oil moved back into a deadlock for that spot by whipping Schaffer's 72-56 while Rollingsone broke into the win column with a 57-56 double overtime decision over National Guard.

After a 26-26 halftime tie, Watkins rolled out in front to stay in the last half.

Bill Holm and John Brown each had 16 points for the winners while Jerry Sievers and Bob Hazelton hit 16 and 12 respectively for Westgate.

Standard Oil led 11-8, 29-20 and 51-36 at the quarter turns in registering its fourth league victory against two losses.

Ron Ekker fired in 22 points and Jerry Chandler 17 for the Oilers. Joe Kaczorowski hit 22 for Schaffer's.

Steve Hengel, who scored 13 points, was the only player in double figures for Rollingsone in the two extra periods. Rich McMahon and Jack Rader each had 11 for National Guard.

LUCAS, BUCKS AWE 17,000

Breather for Gophers Tonight at MSU

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — With more than 17,000 fans still singing the praises of Ohio State's Jerry Lucas, Minnesota's basketball Gophers are at Michigan State tonight for a possible "breather" against the ninth place Spartans.

Twice All-America Lucas and his Ohio State mates demolished the Gophers 90-76 Saturday night before a sellout crowd that grumbled at times at the Gophers' frustration but was lavish in its praise of the winners.

Lucas, a dark-haired, modest, graceful giant, lived up to his advance billing, Items:

He scored 32 points on all manner of tip-ins, hook shots and jumpers.

He collared 18 rebounds as the Buckeyes outdid the Gophers by a huge 39-22 edge in that department. When he left the game, Lucas' total was the same as the Gopher team effort up to that moment.

He hit an incredible 14 of 17 field goal efforts and cashed 4 of 5 free throw tries.

Against such an individual effort the Gophers would have trouble enough, but the No. 1-rated Buckeyes showed a precision team effort hard to match in recent memory.

"Take nothing away from them, they're great," said Minnesota Coach Johnny Kundla. The Gophers never really got rolling, he agreed, but credited the Buckeyes' aggressive clinging defense for much of that problem.

For Minnesota, only forward Eric Magdanz with 22 and guard Bob Bateman with 17 were able to help much on offense, many of their points coming on long jump shots as Ohio State virtually shut the door to anything close in.

Tough John Havlicek of the Buckeyes, showing why he was a Cleveland choice in the pro football draft, bulled his way for 24 points and 12 rebounds. Shifty

The 32-year-old electronics technician, who was born in Norway, negotiated the Norge Ski Club 60 meter hill with leaps of 194 and 190 feet. He collected 226.5 points based on form and distance.

Samuelstuen, who failed to make the U.S. team which will compete in the world championships in Zakopane, Poland, Feb. 18-25, also won national titles in 1957 and 1961.

Finishing second to Samuelstuen was Steve Rieschl of Steamboat Springs, Colo. Rieschl, a member of the U.S. team, had jumps of 187 and 177 feet for 212.0 points. Gene Kotlarek of Duluth, Minn., was third with 174-180 — 209.5 followed by Willie Erickson of Iron Mountain, Mich., with 175-185 — 208.7.

John Balfanz, 21-year-old Minneapolis truck driver who last week set an American distance record of 317 feet at Westby, Wis., to become the No. 1 man on the U.S. team, finished fifth with jumps of 182 and 167 and 207.2 points.

MUSTANGS SPLIT
GREEN BAY (AP) Rochester, Minn., and Green Bay split a pair of U. S. Hockey League games during the weekend, the league-leading Mustangs taking a 4-3 victory Sunday to hold on to their 2½-game lead over the hometown Bobcats.

Whitewater beat Stevens Point 95-54 to knock the Pointers out of a three-way deadlock for the lead while La Crosse dumped River Falls 77-57.

Oshkosh rallied to take Platteville 82-78. Superior nipped Stout 77-71 in overtime and Eau Claire defeated Wisconsin-Milwaukee 88-82.

J. P. Fisher was Whitewater's scoring ace with 25 points. John Krueger led Stevens Point with 13. La Crosse, always in front, was paced by Larry Tranberg's 19 points. Don Kopenick was high for River Falls with 21.

Jim Jaeger had 20 points for Oshkosh, which overcame a 51-44 halftime deficit. Ron Kamestra collected 31 points for Platteville.

Superior scored three quick baskets in the extra period after regulation playing time ended with a tie at 70. Stout's Gary Simonson was high scorer with 20 points. Art Nelson had 18 for the Yellow-jackets.

Eau Claire, which sank 36 of 48 free throw attempts in a rough contest, got 30 points from Bob Blizzard while Ed Markunas was high for UWM with 28.

The Bucks shot a nifty 56.3 per cent from the field, the Gophers a frustrating 38.5.

In a halftime ceremony, Football Coach Murray Warmath drew a standing ovation and quarterback Sandy Stephens was awarded the Chicago Tribune trophy for being the Big Ten's most valuable player.

"Take nothing away from them, they're great," said Minnesota Coach Johnny Kundla. The Gophers never really got rolling, he agreed, but credited the Buckeyes' aggressive clinging defense for much of that problem.

Daily News Sports Writer

Best battered and in the dark. That's the situation that confronts the Winona State Warriors as they prepare to take on Superior State College at Memorial Hall at 8 o'clock tonight.

"We're tired, physically we're not in good shape and we have no idea what to look for in Superior," Coach Bob Campbell said this morning.

THE QUESTION now is can the Warriors rebound from Friday's 73-65 loss to Moorhead sufficiently enough to win tonight and start a new conference-in streak at Mankato Saturday night.

A victory could be the shot in the arm the Staters need to get back on the win trail in the NSCC.

Campbell has not seen Superior play this season and about all he knows of them is that they lost to La Crosse in an overtime at Superior prior to the holiday lay-off.

"THIS ISN'T much information to go on," Campbell said. "We'll be going into this game with our eyes wide open though and hope we can cope with what they throw at us sufficiently enough to win."

Ken Stelplung definitely won't see any action until Saturday at the earliest. He was to see a doctor today to get the final word. Campbell has obtained a mask to protect his nose injury but the doctors have to give the okay before he can play.

Another question mark for tonight's game is Gerry Goetz who was ill with the flu last week and was far from top condition in Friday's clash. After the Moorhead contest Goetz said he wasn't feeling well and whether he will be able to play tonight is questionable.

IF GOETZ can't play Bob Lietzau will start at guard opposite Arlen Klinder. Bob James and Dick Papenfuss will be at forwards and Lyle Papenfuss at center.

"We have to get that outside shooting if we want to win," Campbell said.

That was evident Friday night as the noticeable scoring lag came from Goetz, Klinder and Lietzau who counted only 18 points between them. In the games State has won thus far the guards have come through with Ice fishermen competing in the annual Winona Winter Carnival ice fishing contest Sunday hauled in 225 fish.

The contest was co-sponsored by the Winona Activity Group and Winona Boat Club.

The anglers received $1 for each fish caught Sunday instead of prizes being awarded for various weights and species.

Merchandise prizes were awarded at drawings throughout the three-hour contest held on Straight Slough off Prairie Island.

A total of $450 was paid out in awards.

Among the most prolific fishermen was Wayne Volkman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Volkman, 364 E. King St. He hauled in 17 fish worth $17.

Attendance prizes were awarded to three persons whose names were drawn from among contestants and "anglers" who bought tickets but didn't brave the cold weather.

Winners were Joe Zenk, 219 W. 2nd St., $100; Mrs. Archie Welch, 516 Franklin St., $75, and Fred Schilling, 102 Exchange Bldg., $50.

Only about 220 persons turned out for the contest, a major decrease over past years, said chairman Mark Schneider and Sal Kosidowski.

Best battered and in the dark. That's the situation that confronts the Winona State Warriors as they prepare to take on Superior State College at Memorial Hall at 8 o'clock tonight.

"We're tired, physically we're not in good shape and we have no idea what to look for in Superior," Coach Bob Campbell said this morning.

THE QUESTION now is can the Warriors rebound from Friday's 73-65 loss to Moorhead sufficiently enough to win tonight and start a new conference-in streak at Mankato Saturday night.

A victory could be the shot in the arm the Staters need to get back on the win trail in the NSCC.

Campbell has not seen Superior play this season and about all he knows of them is that they lost to La Crosse in an overtime at Superior prior to the holiday lay-off.

"THIS ISN'T much information to go on," Campbell said. "We'll be going into this game with our eyes wide open though and hope we can cope with what they throw at us sufficiently enough to win."

Ken Stelplung definitely won't see any action until Saturday at the earliest. He was to see a doctor today to get the final word. Campbell has obtained a mask to protect his nose injury but the doctors have to give the okay before he can play.

Another question mark for tonight's game is Gerry Goetz who was ill with the flu last week and was far from top condition in Friday's clash. After the Moorhead contest Goetz said he wasn't feeling well and whether he will be able to play tonight is questionable.

IF GOETZ can't play Bob Lietzau will start at guard opposite Arlen Klinder. Bob James and Dick Papenfuss will be at forwards and Lyle Papenfuss at center.

"We have to get that outside shooting if we want to win," Campbell said.

That was evident Friday night as the noticeable scoring lag came from Goetz, Klinder and Lietzau who counted only 18 points between them. In the games State has won thus far the guards have come through with

Free Throws Ruin Cotter Bid 59-58

ST. PAUL, Minn. (Special) — Cotter's Ramblers dropped a 59-58 decision to the Pointers of St. Paul Hill here Sunday in a close, hard-fought contest that was tied 14 times and during which the lead changed hands 20 times.

Cotter played one of its best games of the season, which after the La Crosse Logan game Friday, leads one to believe that the Ramblers are on their way. But the difference in the final score yesterday was written at the free throw line.

The Pointers committed only nine personal fouls while Cotter was charged with 13. Hill capitalized on 13 gift tosses and the Ramblers only four.

THE FIELD GOAL department was a different story as the Ramblers shot 45 percent on 27 for 60 while the Pointers counted 34.8 percent on 23 for 66.

Cotter did manage to cut the scoring of Pointer center Mike Finnegan by 10 points. Finnegan hit 18 points, but this time got scoring support from Tom Kinsella who counted 13 and Lee Williams who hit 16.

Cotter moved in front 12-10 at the quarter as Larry Modjeski, who scored 10 points, and Gene Schultz, who hit 16, both fired in four points.

Finnegan hit two free throws to knot the score 12-12 at the start of the second period. The score was tied at 14-14 before Modjeski and Sam Czaplowski pushed the Ramblers to 18-14.

Williams hit two consecutive layups to tie the score 18-18 and this set the pattern for the rest of the game.

Cotter took four point leads at 24-20 and 28-24 but each time Hill came back to tie the score with Williams and Finnegan leading the way.

With the start of the second half it looked as if the Ramblers were on their way. Czaplowski and Bob Judge, who scored 12 points, hit on driving shots to up Cotter's lead to 32-28.

The game stayed close for the rest of the quarter but always the Ramblers managed a two or four point margin. With one minute left in the period Kinsella tied the score at 40-40 and Finnegan pushed Hill in front for the first time during the second half with two free throws.

Judge tied the score at the buzzer 42-42 with a hook shot.

THE RAMBLERS never led in the last quarter but they never trailed by more than five. Finnegan and Williams pushed the Pointers into a 54-49 lead midway in the period before Cotter started back.

Modjeski hit a field goal and Czaplowski added a free throw to make it 52-54 but Kinsella scored on a driving shot to give Hill the four point lead.

Czaplowski, with two free throws, and Judge, with a hook shot, forced a 56-56 tie but Talbot broke the Ramblers back with a three point play in the final minute to run the count to 59-56.

COTTER MADE a vain attempt to catch up as Schultz hit a jump shot to make the final 59-58 but Hill froze the ball in the remaining seconds to drop the Ramblers below the .500 mark at 6-7 for the season.

"We looked good for most of the game," Coach John Nett said. "But those free throws we didn't get really hurt us in the end. The game Friday with St. Louis Park Benilde isn't going to be any soft touch either. Benilde has won 13 in a row."

visiting Michigan Tech. The Sioux, by virtue of Saturday's 3-2 loss, now are in fourth place in the WCHA with a 4-8 record.

The victories over Duluth didn't count in the standings for Minnesota, 2-4 in the conference, but they did give the Gophers a breather. Six Gophers hit the scoring column as Duluth went down 6-4 Saturday. Duluth made a fight of it and tied the score at 3-3 in the second period before Ron Constantine and Larry Smith iced the game for Minnesota.

Louis Agnotti's goal at 7:33 of a sudden death overtime provided Michigan Tech with its margin of victory Saturday. Scoring for the Sioux were Bob Barlett and Al McLean.

Michigan leads the association with a 7-1 record, followed by Michigan State (5-1), Tech (11-3) and Denver (5-5). Colorado College is winless in 12 starts.

American Legion registered its ninth straight Park Recreation Pee Wee League victory at Central Elementary School Saturday by squeezing past Winona Hotels 19-18.

In other action McKinley edged Coca-Cola 10-7 and Jay Bees got its first win on a forfeit from Paint Dept.

This is the second forfeit loss for the Depot five which is in second place with a 5-4 mark.

Mark Patterson hit 11 points for Winona Hotels which threw a scare into league leading American Legion.

Hotels led 13-7 at halftime before falling victim of a fourth period Legion rally led by Hans Meier with seven points.

McKinley moved in front of Coke 8-6 at halftime and then scored two points in the final quarter while holdings its opponents to one second half marker.

Scott Featherstone and Dick Nogack each hit four points for McKinley and Dan Nyseth a like total for Coke.

Dischinger vs. Lucas Tonight In Point Duel

By JOE MOOSHIL

Associated Press Sports Writer

An All-America battle, featuring Jerry Lucas of top-ranked Ohio State and Terry Dischinger of Purdue, commands Big Ten basketball attention in Columbus tonight.

The Buckeyes, aiming for a third straight conference title, also seek their 14th successive win this season and fourth in conference competition. Purdue, one of the few teams given an outside chance to overhaul Ohio State, have a 3-1 record and could climb past the Buckeyes with a triumph.

Lucas, generally regarded as the top college basketball player in the nation, has yet to outdo Dischinger in any scoring contest. The Boilermaker star won the Big Ten scoring championship in 1960 as a sophomore and repeated last season. Both times Lucas was runner-up.

Although Dischinger has never been on a team which beat Ohio State, he has had the delight of outscoring Lucas in their previous head-on meetings.

In 1960, Ohio State dumped Purdue, 85-71, but Dischinger outscored Lucas 32-27. Last year it was Ohio State 92, Purdue 62 and Dischinger finished with 26 points to 17 for Lucas.

This year, for a change, Ohio State and Purdue meet twice. They also have a date a week from tonight to play in Lafayette. The only other conference game on tonight's schedule finds Minnesota (2-2) at Michigan State (1-4).

In other conference games Saturday, visiting teams were victorious. Michigan State knocked out Michigan, 60-74, to climb out of the Big Ten cellar and Iowa dumped winless Northwestern into last place with a 72-60 triumph.

Lewiston continued its unbeaten skein in the Tri-County League Sunday by blasting winless LaCrescent 128-98 for six in a row. The big noise came from Houston's Jim Plumeda who scored 60 points on 25 field goals and 10 free throws in Houston's 110-94 victory over Peterson.

In one other league game Hokah downed Dakota 77-60. Ron Erdmann fired in 30 points for Lewiston. Dale Erdman 24 and Sandy Henry 18. Johnson did the scoring job for LaCrescent with 41 points. Everett Newberg hit 32.

Houston led 33-29, 51-50 and 79-78 at the quarter turns in gaining its victory.

A. Skalet fired in 37 points, Bernie Benson 27 and Paul Skalet 23 for Peterson.

Hokah was never in trouble at Dakota as it jumped off to a 25-11 quarter lead and coasted the rest of the way to the victory.

Ray Horihan paced Hokah with 14 points, Norm Fuerherm and Al Stempel got 12 each and Wayne Tennes 11. Bill Nissalke and Jim Nissalke hit 15 and 14, respectively, for Dakota.

The Royals jumped to an 11-2 first quarter lead and then went on to a 26-8 victory over the Rockets in the Catholic Recreation Intramural League Saturday.

In other action the Hustlers rolled over the Falcons 34-13, the Saints staved off a last quarter rally to top the Johnnies 30-27 and the Knights dumped the Mustangs 24-17.

Tom Stoffel hit nine points for the Royals while Carbus Dingfelder scored three points for the Rockets.

Chuck Kulas dropped in 10 points for the winning Hustler while Ted Bamhnek and Jim Miller had five each for the Falcons.

Bill Knopick hit nine points for the Saints while Jim Holway of the Johnnies scored 13.

George Hoepfner "flipped" in seven points for the Knights and Darrell Holzer six for the losing Mustangs.

Wright Captures Sea Island Meet

SEA ISLAND, Ga. (AP)—Long-hitting Mickey Wright was won the Sea Island Ladies Open golf tournament for the fourth time in five years but feels "the course is still the champion."

"I had promised myself I'd break par, but I didn't even come close," said the trim 26-year-old golfer playing out of Dallas, Tex. She finished the 54-hole tournament Sunday two strokes ahead of the large field, but her 75-75-76-226 was 10 strokes over par for the rugged 6,550-yard Sea Island course where par is 36-36-72.

Betsy Hawk of Spartanburg, S.C., started the final day one stroke behind Miss Wright and vaulted into the lead on the opening holes. However, Miss Wright made an eagle three on the seventh hole and went on to win.

Early Gains Cut in Quiet Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP)—

The stock market advanced moderately today but early gains were cut as trading quieted early this afternoon.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .80 at 255.90 with industrials up 1.30, rails up 1.0 and utilities up .70.

Gains of fractions to a point or so among key stocks outnumbered losers. Most gains were fractional. A number of issues were unchanged or lost fractions.

Boston Edison spurred more than 4 points, then trimmed about a point from the rise in later dealings.

South Puerto Rico sugar was up about a point.

American Machine & Foundry fell 1½, then recovered to show only a fractional loss.

Xerox fell 5½, then trimmed the decline to 3 points or so.

Aerospace stocks were mixed. Lockheed was up around a point and United Aircraft more than that, but North American Aviation was off about a point and General Dynamics a fraction. Avco eased. Litton was fractionally higher and Zenith was off about 2.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 2.19 at 702.91. Prices were generally higher on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate bonds advanced. U.S. Government bonds were unchanged.
